Index

Abu-Lughod, Lila, 11
African Americans, 191
Agency, 10, 11, 175, 176–77
Aggressive women, 142–43, 144–45
Allen, Horace N., 17, 205n1
Amsden, Alice H., 54
Ancestor worship, 59, 78, 205–6n2, 220n5
Arrogance, 140, 144–45, 165, 167
Assemblies of God, 25, 31
Authoritarianism: in church culture, 29–30, 236n2; political, 54, 57, 219n9
Autonomy: of church women, 9, 107, 109, 113; of married women, 76, 77, 78, 172. See also Empowerment
Baptist churches: denominational schisms, 21; large, 2, 204n3; membership numbers, 25
Bible: interpretations supporting subordination of women, 113, 231n7; translations, 18, 206n7, 215–16n49
Bible study: groups, 29, 120–21, 132, 215–16n49; practice, 28, 29, 132
Bible women (jeondo buin), 19
Brazil, Pentecostal women in, 162
Brusco, Elizabeth E., 7, 162
Buddhism, 58, 59, 204n2, 214n44
Burdick, John, 162
Calvinism, 25
Capitalism, patriarchy and, 67–71, 222n27, 223n30. See also Economic development
Catholics: missionaries, 15, 205–6n2; persecution of, 205–6n2; in South Korea, 2
Cell groups: activities, 119–20; attendance by non-church members, 230n8, 231n8; conversion opportunities, 97; efforts to reform women, 136, 138–39, 165, 166–67; functions, 29; meetings, 29, 37, 43–44, 97–99; mutual assistance of members, 120; opportunities for emotional release, 97–99; origins, 216n50; prayers, 99; social interactions, 29, 118–19; at South River Church, 36, 98–99, 100, 118–20, 166–67; teachings on
Index

Churches: authoritarian leadership, 29–30, 236;2; as disciplinary agents, 164, 166–68, 190; double roles, 187; gender hierarchy, 29–30, 31–32; inequality within, 124, 125–26; large, 2, 22, 204;3, 210;23, 215;47; lay leaders, 30, 94, 113–15, 125, 216;51; patriarchal leadership, 29–30, 113; as performative spaces, 121–26; self-governance, 30–31; small, 124–25; social functions, 23; in urban areas, 1, 14, 23. See also Evangelicalism; North River Church; Protestant denominations; South River Church

Church involvement of women: contradictions in, 186–87, 191–92; deacons, 31, 110–12, 114–15, 126, 127–29; domestic work, 114–16; elders, 94, 113–14; evangelism, 19, 111, 207–8;4; expectations, 115, 116, 122; history, 19; importance, 3, 111–12; individual variations, 192; initial, 8; institutional maintenance tasks, 115–16; institutional roles, 116–16; internal transformation as result, 126–31; as learning opportunity, 131–32; motivations, 8–9, 111, 117–21, 131–32, 189, 193; official leadership positions, 113–15; opportunities for self-expression, 126–31, 193; paradox of, 3–4, 8, 171–76, 187, 190; as pastors, 31, 113, 230;2; prayer practice, 83; recognition and rewards as incentives, 121–26, 189; recognition related to economic class, 125–26; as resistance, 7, 133, 187; as response to domestic dilemmas, 8–9, 51, 52, 94–95, 187, 189, 191–92; self-fulfillment through, 129, 189; in small churches, 124–25; social interactions, 117–21, 193; status rewards, 116, 122–25; time spent, 115, 118. See also Bible study; Cell groups

Clark, Donald N., 30–31

Classes: dominant, 186; elites, 16, 17, 19, 61; identification with middle gender and family relations, 137, 140–41; women’s, 98–99

Cell leaders: educational levels, 126; female, 31, 167–68; functions, 130; responses to researcher, 43–44; roles, 99; self-empowerment, 130; training, 132; on women’s obedience, 143–44

Chang, Kyung-sup, 67

Charismatic movements, 26–27, 213;39–40, 213–14;42. See also Pentecostals

Children: daughters, 80; education of, 78–79, 119, 236;6; fathers and, 103; number in families, 65; obedience by, 145–46; parental investment, 80; sons, 59, 60, 62, 80, 179. See also Motherhood

Cho, Haejoang, 62, 180

Cho Yonggi, 212–13;38

Christians: class membership, 35–36; liberal groups and denominations, 31, 32, 35, 211;31; number in South Korea, 2; repression in North Korea, 20, 24; resistance to Japanese colonial government, 19–20, 21, 208;4; in South Korean governments, 23–24, 210;26. See also Catholics; Evangelicalism; Missionaries; Protestants

Chun Doo Hwan, 56
Conversions: acceptance of church’s Conservative religions. Consent: ideological, confidence. Community of church women, colonialism. Colombia, Pentecostals in, clergy. experimentation with, experiences, missionaries, 229
sens as motivation, 194
calism; Traditionalist religions, gender ideology, 162
85–87, 88–91, 105; opening up of self, 95–99; pathways to, physical experiences, 104; physical illnesses preceding, 88–91; as rebirth, 101, 104–5, 172–73; relief effect, 101; responses to domestic dilemmas, 85–98; self-transformation, 95, 99–100, 104–5; social factors, 86, 229n6; social influence theory, 229n6; social processes, 97, 229n6; strain theory, 229n6; subculture theory, 229n6; sudden or gradual, 227–28n7; as surrender, 100–104, 105, 174–75; testimonies, 100; theories, 229n6; worldview changes, 99–100

Daughters-in-law. see Married women; Mothers-in-law

Death of self, 166–68, 234n16

Deliverance. see Liberation

Democracy, 56, 57, 219n9

Deuchler, Martina, 62

Disciplinary agents, churches as, 164, 166–68, 190

Discrimination, gender-based, 68–69, 199, 223n30, 224n36

Division of labor, 59, 69, 121. See also Domestic labor; Gender roles

Divorce, 93, 198, 221n23, 232–33n6

Domestic abuse, 155, 232–33n6

Domesticating programs, 72, 73
Domestic dilemmas: church involvement as response to, 8–9, 51, 52, 94–95, 187, 189, 191–92; conflicts between expectations and reality, 74, 77, 80, 91; conflicts with husbands, 77–78, 91–92, 99; conflicts with mothers-in-law, 78, 86, 89, 91–92, 99; conversions as response to, 85–98; coping strategies, 107–9; emotional deprivation, 106; emotional responses, 91–94; improvements after conversion, 107; lack of outlets, 93–94, 96; persistence in contemporary South Korea, 199; physical illnesses related to, 90–91; sociocultural factors, 52–53; sources, 74–80; submission as strategy for negotiation, 6, 149–58, 162, 165–66; women blamed for conflicts, 156–41, 164–65

Domesticity: changing expectations of women, 74–76, 77, 80, 91; policies encouraging, 68–73; redomestication of women, 172, 187, 189; valued by society, 62, 72–73, 75–76, 143, 179–80, 182–83; women’s preferences for role, 70, 182; workplace roles, 69. See also Housewives

Domestic labor: of church women, 114–16; of daughters-in-law, 60, 78, 89, 92, 180, 228#11; improvement in conditions, 75; of middle-class women, 70, 77, 182; nontraditional activities, 76–77

Donghap (Presbyterian Church of Korea), 31, 209#20

Dying of self, 166–68, 234#16

Economic crisis (1997), 36

Economic development: compressed, 53–56, 57; export-oriented growth, 54–55, 65, 68, 218#3; five-year plans, 55, 217–18#2; GDP growth, 55–56; industrialization, 22, 54, 57; Korean “miracle,” 22–23, 53–56, 57; rapid, 57; South Korean policies, 54–56. See also Workforce

Economy of gratitude, 159–60

Education: of children, 78–79, 139, 236#6; costs, 236#6; enrollments, 64, 221#21; higher, 64–65, 71, 79, 91, 112, 224#33–34; under Japanese, 64, 112, 221#21; Korean system, 64; mission schools, 16, 64, 84, 112, 206#5; opportunities in churches, 131–32; public, 64; relationship to women’s employment, 71; of women, 64, 71, 112–13, 221#21

Educational attainment: of Christians, 36; of men, 226#44; relationship to income, 71, 226#44; of South Koreans, 64–65; in Taiwan, 65; of women, 65, 91, 126, 224#33

Egoism, 138–39, 165, 167

Elders: appointments, 125; female, 94, 113–14; leadership role, 30; male, 125

Elites: Christianity and, 16, 17, 19; women’s roles, 61

Emancipation. See Liberation

Emotions: deprivation, 106; expressed by husbands, 152; in prayer, 97; releasing, 97–99; repressed, 91–94

Empathy, 39–40, 44, 46, 217#7

Employment. See Workforce
Empowerment: from God, 129; through church involvement, 7, 129, 130, 189, 192; through conversion, 106, 172–73; through surrender, 103–4. See also Autonomy; Power

Endurance: cultivation of, 143, 146–48, 174; lack of, 165; questioning by women, 149, 150; of women in past, 141

Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1987, 66

Equal rights, 66, 199

Evangelical church women: ages and marital status, 38; childhood church attendance, 84–85, 86; Christian family origins, 84; contradictions and ambiguities in beliefs, 9–10, 171–76, 187, 189; cultural context, 188–89, 193; female subjectivity, 185–86; in future, 197–200; importance in churches, 3; jeondo buin (Bible women), 19; in Latin America, 5–6, 7, 162, 191; proportion of Protestant population, 3; reception of researcher, 40–43; redomestication, 172, 187, 189; seen as socializers, 121; in United States, 6, 179, 191; younger generation, 197–200, 236n2. See also Church involvement of women; Conversions; Domestic dilemmas; Married women

Evangelicalism in South Korea: beliefs and practices, 25–29, 35, 203n1; church membership numbers, 1–2; demographics of membership, 35–36; direct relationship with God, 95–97, 103; doctrinal rigidity, 212n33; double role, 187; experiential orientation, 26–27, 213n41; future of, 196–200; growth, 1, 2–3; history, 15–22, 208n17; institutional culture, 29–32; obedience to authority, 175; patriarchal ideology, 3–4; proselytizing efforts, 19, 85, 111, 207n11, 207–8n14, 227n3; scholarship on, 2–3; worship services, 26–27, 28

Ewha Hakdang (Ewha Womans University), 112

Exhorting deacons (gwonsa), 89–90, 114, 116, 124

Export-oriented growth, 54–55, 65, 68, 218n3

Families: central role in society, 184; extended, 63, 67, 79; filial piety, 59, 61, 62, 67; importance to woman’s identity, 195, 196; male heads, 156–57, 220n15; modified stem, 226n43; natal, 61, 70, 84; nuclear, 63, 68, 76, 79, 226n45; sizes, 65; status production work, 76–77, 78–79, 235–36n12; stem, 63; women’s management of relationships, 76; women’s responsibilities for cohesion, 182–83, 185, 195. See also Gender and family relations; Marriages
Fieldwork sites and method, 262
Fertility rates, 262
Family seminars: assignments, 153;
efforts to reform women, 136, 138–41, 152, 165; obedience and submission taught in, 153–55, 158, 160, 163; purpose, 144–45; teachings on gender and family relations, 137, 154, 163
Fathers, 103. See also Husbands
Feminism, 7, 45, 181, 196, 199
Feminist theory, 10, 176, 177–78, 181
Fertility rates, 63, 197
Fieldwork sites and method, 32–39.

See also Ethnographic research
Filial piety, 59, 61, 62, 67
Forgiveness: dealing with domestic conflicts, 107–9, 147; by God, 105; lack of, 165
Foucault, Michel, 10, 178
Fundamentalist religions. see Evangelicalism; Traditionalist religions

Galanter, Marc, 101
Gallagher, Sally K., 6
Gender and family relations: acceptance of church’s gender ideology, 162, 171–76; attempts to transform women’s behavior and consciousness, 136, 143–48, 164, 166–68, 190; changes in contemporary, 81, 198, 236–37; changes in postwar period, 57–58, 63–74; Confucian principles, 58–59, 60–62, 67; conservative American views, 6, 199, 233n8; evangelical ideology, 3–4, 113, 135, 136–48, 171–76, 191, 233n8; in future, 197–200; incentives for women’s acceptance of traditional role, 179–80, 182–83, 194–95; opportunities for women, 179–80; patrilineal systems, 59, 60, 179, 224–25; power of women, 179–80, 182; problems seen by churches, 136–43, 232n3; questioning of evangelical teachings, 148–49, 150, 158–59; redomestication of women, 172, 187, 189; strains in, 74; Western influences, 63–64, 233n8; women’s responses to church teachings, 148–49, 158–59, 186–87; women’s violations of gender order, 137–41. See also Domestic dilemmas; Obedience; Patriarchy; Submission, female; Subordinate status of women
Gender-based employment discrimination, 68–69, 199, 223n30, 224n36
Gender consciousness: acceptance of traditional gender roles, 160, 162–64, 172–74, 179–80; church attempts to transform, 136, 164, 190; cultural context, 180–84
Gender hierarchy: acceptance by women, 163, 173, 177–85; in churches, 29–30, 31–32; Confucian principles, 32, 31, 59, 67; criticism of women for violations, 137–38; in marriage, 51, 234n15; persistence in modern South Korea, 58, 67; reestablishing, 143. See also Subordinate status of women
Gender identity, 172–74, 180–84, 195–96
Gender roles: Confucian relationships, 32, 51, 59, 60–62; conventional, 4, 72–73, 77–78, 135, 160, 162–64, 172–74; criticism of women for violations, 137–38; cultural training of girls, 60, 220n17; in evangelical churches, 31–32; family cohesion, 182–83; government policies promoting conventional, 72–73; ideal femininity, 138, 140; inner and outer spheres, 59, 62, 69, 143; male, 156–57; moral responsibilities of women, 182–84; occupational segregation, 68, 69, 222n29, 223n30; in Unified Silla period, 59–60. See also Domesticity; Husbands; Married women; Men; Motherhood; Submission, female; Women

Gender segregation, 59, 60, 68, 69

Gender subjectivities: ambivalent, 185–86; church attempts to transform, 141–42; contemporary, 198, 236n4; contradictions and ambiguities, 142–43, 185–86, 195–96; control of, 143; cultural context, 180–84

Gijang. see Presbyterian Church in the Republic of Korea

Gilkes, Cheryl Townsend, 191

God: authority, 161–62, 172; dependence on, 102; direct relationship with, 95–97, 103; as Father, 103; forgiveness, 105; as husband or lover, 161–62; love of, 105–9; obedience to, 103, 175

Gojong, King, 17

Goryo dynasty, 60

Gramsci, Antonio, 10

Gratitude, 159–60

Great Revival of 1907, 18, 28, 226–27

Greenhalgh, Susan, 199

Guilt, 142–43, 183–84

Gwonsa. see Exhorting deacons

Hangul (Korean writing system), 18, 215–16n49

Hapdong (Presbyterian Church of Korea), 209n20

Hardacre, Helen, 79

Hartmann, Heidi, 68, 69

Haughtiness, 140–41

Healing: ministries, 228n9; as motive for conversion, 88, 110, 193, 228n9, 229n4; through conversion, 104, 106; through faith, 189; through forgiveness, 107–9

Helplessness, 93, 100, 101, 102, 103, 175

Helpmate role, 116

Higher education, 64–65, 71, 79, 91, 112, 224n33–34. See also Education

Holiness churches, 21

Holy Spirit (Ghost): baptism of, 26, 213n40, 213n42; in Pentecostalism, 26, 213–14n42; surrender to, 104

Hospitals, 16, 17

Households, 63. See also Families;

Gender and family relations;

Mothers-in-law

Housewives: domestic labor, 75, 182;

full-time, 70; informal labor, 70, 76–77, 225n40; non-traditional activities, 76–77; training, 72. See also Domesticity

Husbands: attitudes of younger, 198;

behavioral changes, 151–52, 155–57, 233n13; character changes, 152–53; church teachings for, 232n7; communication with wives, 152; conflicts with, 77–78, 91–92, 99; conventional roles, 77–78; expression of emotions, 152; fatherhood, 103; God as, 161–62; as heads of families, 156–57, 220n15; increased family orientation, 155–57; respectfulness, 151–52, 198; spiritual leadership, 156–57; taking responsibility, 156–57; wife’s position in family of, 60, 78, 228n11. See also Gender and family relations; Marriages; Mothers-in-law; Obedience

Illnesses: preceding conversions, 88–91, 110; psychosomatic, 90–91, 110. See also Healing

IMF. see International Monetary Fund

Impatience, 138, 141, 167

Incomes: informal activities, 70, 76–77, 225n40; of married women, 77, 236n6; relationship to educational attainment, 71, 226n44. See also Wages

Indigenization, religious, 194

Individualism, 182, 196

Industrialization, 22, 54, 57. See also Economic development

Injeong (recognition), 122

Internal transformation, 126–31

International Monetary Fund (IMF), 56

Japan: Ganghwa Treaty, 15; relations with South Korea, 54, 218n3; women’s workforce participation, 70–71, 223n30

Japanese occupation: annexation (1910), 15; Christianity under, 19–21, 209n19; cultural assimilation policy, 208–9n8; educational system, 64, 112, 221n21; Korean resistance, 19–20, 21, 208n16; missionaries and, 19, 208n15, 212n16; protectorate status (1905), 18; Shinto worship, 20–21, 209n19

Jeondosa (ministerial interns or nonordained pastors), 113

Jesus: authority, 161; leadership, 230n21

Jipsa. see Deacons

Jobs. see Work force

Judaism, Orthodox, 7, 199, 205n12

Kandiyoti, Deniz, 150, 180–81

Kendall, Laurel, 81

Killing of self, 166–68, 234n16

Kim, Dongno, 184

“Kitchen herd,” 114–16

KNCC. see Korean National Council of Churches

Kondo, Dorinne K., 186

Korea: interest in Western knowledge and culture, 16; nationalism, 19–20; Yi dynasty, 15, 17, 58–59, 205–692. See also Japanese occupation; Missionaries; North Korea; South Korea

Korean Church Women United, 32

Korean National Council of Churches (KNCC), 32

Korean War, 21

Koryo Presbyterian Church, 209n20
Labor. see Domestic labor; Work force
Latin America: evangelical women, 5–6, 7, 162, 191; Protestantism, 2
Legal status of women, 66, 221n23
Lett, Denise, 77
Liberation: meaning for women, 195–96; from patriarchy, 9–10, 186–87; tension with acquiescence to gender oppression, 8, 9–10, 171–72; through conversion, 103, 172–74, 174; through faith, 7, 189–91, 203n14; undercut by traditional gender ideology, 172–74, 176
Literacy rates, 64
Love: divine, 105–9; in marriage, 63–64, 151, 164
Lower-class women: church involvement in Latin America, 5–6; conversions, 88, 228n9; lack of recognition for church involvement, 125–26; shamanism and, 229n15; work of, 61; under Yi dynasty, 220n7
Malaysian peasants, 186
Marriages: age differences, 163, 234n15; arranged, 225n41, 232n3; Christian views, 164; companionate, 225n41; delayed childbearing, 236n5; egalitarian relationships, 63–64, 75, 163, 198; improved relationships after conversion, 107; incompatibility, 232n3; lack of preparation for domestic role, 80, 89, 92, 232n3; love in, 63–64, 151, 164; sexual relations, 145, 148. See also Domestic dilemmas; Gender and family relations; Husbands; Mothers-in-law
Marriage shock, 80
Married women: attitude changes, 147–48; autonomy, 76, 77, 78, 172; educational attainment, 71, 91, 224n34; effecting changes in husband’s behavior, 151–52, 155–57; expectations, 61, 74–76, 77, 80; filial piety, 61; incomes, 77, 236n6; informal income-generating activities, 70, 76–77, 225n40; lack of preparation of contemporary girls, 80, 89, 92; moral authority, 160, 161, 195; narratives, 138–39, 140, 146, 151–52, 153, 156, 158–60, 162–64, 167–70; natal families, 61, 84; nation-building role, 73; relations with in-laws, 60–61, 78, 89, 92, 180, 228n11; roles, 60–62; sanctions for “evils,” 61–62, 220–21n19; self-images, 94, 142–43; workforce participation rates, 70, 71, 197, 199, 223n31; younger generation, 197–200, 235–36n12. See also Domestic dilemmas; Domestic labor; Evangelical church women; Gender and family relations; Motherhood; Submission
Martin, David, 30
Media, state-controlled, 72–73
Mega-churches, 2, 22, 29, 204n3, 210n23, 215n47
Men: authority, 161, 172, 173; Christians, 233n13; church elders, 125; Confucian gender roles, 59, 103, 220n15; deacons, 114, 115, 125; drinking and smoking, 156, 233n13; educational attainment, 226n44; fathers, 103; as heads of families, 156–57, 220n15; power, 185. See also Gender; Husbands; Marriages;
Patriarchy
Mental illness, 94
Methodist churches: denominational schisms, 21; female pastors, 31, 113,
230n2; large, 2, 204n3; leaders,
216n51; liberal theology, 35; membership numbers, 24–25. See also
North River Church
Methodist missionaries: American, 204n1; educational and medical work, 112, 206n4–5; female,
230n2
Middle class, Korean, 35–36
Middle-class women: family status production work, 76–77; housewives, 70, 76, 182; lack of prepa-
rating for domestic role, 80, 89, 91, 232n3; workforce participation rates, 70. See also Church involve ment of women; Domestic dilemmas; Evangelical church women
Minjung theology, 211n31
Missionaries: American, 15–16, 205n1;
Bible-study classes, 215–16n49;
Bible translations, 18, 206n7, 215–
16n49; Catholic, 15, 205–6n2;
churches founded, 16; Comity
Agreement, 206n8; conservative theology, 25, 212n32; converts, 18,
207n9, 207n12; in Korea, 15–18, 19, 21; medical work, 16, 17; organizations, 22, 210n24; regional partitions, 21, 206–7n8; relations with Japanese colonial government, 19, 208n15, 212n36; revivals, 212n36;
rural itineration, 18
Missionary societies. see Women’s missionary societies
Mission schools, 16, 64, 84, 112,
206n5
Modernity: distinction from modernization, 204n7; responses to, 5, 56–58; tensions with traditional culture, 57, 58, 80, 136–37, 196–97;
Western, 56–58, 197
Modernization: distinction from modernity, 204n7; of South Korean society, 196–97. See also
Economic development
Moffett, Samuel H., 21
Mohanty, Chandra, 181
Moon, Seungsook, 72, 73
Motherhood: child-raising, 80, 139, 145–46; criticism of ambition and greed in, 139; delaying, 236n5; education of children, 78–79, 139;
emotional bonds, 226n45; family planning, 63, 73, 236n5; fertility rates, 63, 197; guilt over failings,
183; importance of having sons,
59, 60, 62, 80, 179; nation-building role, 73; number of children, 63;
power, 179–80, 182; preparations for role, 72; valued by society, 59,
See also Children; Married women
Mothers-in-law: changing relationships with daughters-in-law, 236–
37n7; conflicts with, 78, 86, 89,
91–92, 99; control of daughters-in-law, 60, 78; labor of daughters-in-law, 60, 78, 89, 92, 180, 228n11;
power and status, 62, 179, 180
Natal families, 61, 70, 84
Neo-Confucianism, 38–59, 60–62,
66–73, 219–20n3. See also Confucianism
Index

Nevius Plan, 18
North Korea: communist regime, 57; invasion threat, 23; refugees from, 24; repression of Christians, 20, 24
North River Church: Bible-study groups, 121; cell leaders, 167–68; deacons, 110–12, 122, 126, 127–29; description, 33–34; elders, 94; exhorting deacons, 89–90, 114, 116, 124; as fieldwork site, 32, 33–37, 40–44, 45; leaders, 42–43; location, 32, 33–34; member interviews, 85–86, 89–91, 107, 123–24, 127–29, 131–32; membership, 34, 36; missionary societies, 120; pastors, 36–37, 40, 45, 95–96; tithing member lists, 231–89

Obedience: acceptance of, 162–63, 169–70; to authority, 145, 173; to church authorities, 175; Confucian principles for women, 61; developing in children, 145–46; docile, 103, 109, 143–46; to God, 103, 175; to husbands, 143–46, 153–55, 158, 165–66, 232–33/6; injunctions for women, 143–46, 153–55, 158, 165–66, 232–33/6; questioning by women, 150, 158–59; relationship to faith, 166; supreme acts, 159; with a vengeance, 158–59; woman’s self-interest in, 154, 155. See also Submission

Objectivity, 39–40, 46–47
Occupational segregation, 68, 69, 222, 229, 223/30
Oppression: consent to, 176–77; resistance to, 161, 176–77, 187. See also Patriarchy

Ordination of women, 31, 113
Orthodox Jews, 7, 199, 205/12
Ortner, Sherry B., 11

Papanek, Hanna, 76
Parents. See Children; Families; Fathers; Motherhood

Park Chung Hee, 23–24, 54–56, 217–18/2
Participant observation, 32, 37–38, 39–40, 42, 43
Passive resistance, 158–59, 172
Pastors: authority, 29–30; female, 31, 113, 230/2; leadership of churches, 29–30; oversupply, 211/28; recognition of women’s contributions to churches, 123; relations with lay people, 29–30
Patriarchal bargain, 150
Patriarchy: capitalism and, 67–71, 222/27, 223/30; changes in post-war period, 8, 63–74; in church leadership, 29–30, 113; classic, 180, 233/9; consent to, 9–10, 11, 136, 171–72, 176–85, 194–96; contradictory responses of women, 9–10, 185, 186–87; crises of modern, 8–9; frustrations with restrictions, 74, 77, 80, 91; gender oppression, 161, 176, 187; government policies preserving, 72–73; in Korean evangelicalism, 3–4, 135; liberation from, 9–10, 186–87; maintenance of, 171–76, 177–85, 186–87, 190, 194–95; negotiating, 6, 149–58; Neo-Confucian, 98–59, 60–62, 66–73; persistence in modern South Korea, 8–9, 57, 66–73, 199; resistance to, 9–10, 161, 187; traditionalist religions and, 3, 190;
women’s interest in preserving, 6, 10, 177–85; women’s strategies for dealing with, 150. See also Gender and family relations; Subordinate status of women
Patrilineal systems, 59, 60, 179, 224–25
Penitence. see Repentance
Pentecostals: experiential orientation, 26–27; healing ministries, 228–69; in Latin America, 7; opposition of other conservative Protestants, 212–13; revivals, 212–36; in South Korea, 25, 212–13; charismatic movements; Evangelicalism
Personality transformation: of husbands, 152–53; through women’s church involvement, 126–31
Poststructuralism, 10, 177–78
Power: of African American women in churches, 191; male, 185; of mothers-in-law, 62, 179, 180; poststructuralist analysis, 10, 178; religious, 7, 171–76; of women in families, 10, 179–80, 182. See also Empowerment; Patriarchy Practices: Bible study, 28, 29, 132; evangelical, 25–29, 35, 203–31; intensity, 2; Pentecostal and charismatic, 26–27; worship services, 26–27, 28. See also Prayers
Practice theory, 11
Prayer houses ( gidowon), 28–29, 215–47
Prayers: as aid in submission, 168–69; in cell meetings, 99; communication with God, 95–97, 230–22; constant, 95–96; early-morning, 28, 83, 214–44; emotions in, 97; fasting, 28; Friday-evening, 28, 82, 83, 214–44; healing, 28, 214–46; importance of practice, 83, 95–96; practices, 28–29; surrender in, 104; unified, 83, 226–27
Prayer services, 28, 82–83, 214–44
Presbyterian churches: conservative theology, 35; denominational schisms, 21, 24, 209–20; female pastors, 31; under Japanese rule, 209–20; large, 2, 204–43; leaders, 30; membership numbers, 24. See also South River Church
Presbyterian Church in the Republic of Korea (Gijang), 24, 31, 209–20
Presbyterian Church in the Republic of Korea (Donghap), 31, 209–20
Presbyterian missionaries, 17, 25, 205–1, 206–4
Professionals, female, 66, 69, 222–29
Protestant denominations: in Korea, 1, 2, 24–25, 209–10; liberal, 31, 35, 211–31; regional divisions, 21, 206–7; schisms, 20, 21–22, 24, 209–20, 210–22. See also Baptist churches; Methodist churches; Missionaries; Presbyterian churches
Protestantism: appeal to Koreans, 17–18; Calvinism, 25; Confucian influence, 29–30; 113, 194, 212–33; expansion in Korea, 1, 18–19, 22, 208–22; 209–21; in Latin America, 2; positive perceptions in Korea, 16–17; in urban areas, 23. See also Evangelicalism
Protestants: institutional self-reliance, 18, 25, 30–31; lay evangelism, 19, 85, 111, 207n11, 207–8n14, 227n3; in 1950s and 1960s, 21–22; number in South Korea, 1–2; political views, 24, 210n26. See also Missionaries; Pentecostals
Psychosomatic illnesses, 90–91, 110
Rebirth, 101, 104–5, 172–73. See also Conversions
Redomestication, 172, 187, 189. See also Domesticity
Relief effect, 101
Religious communities: indigenization, 194; issues in studying, 39–40. See also Protestantism; Traditionalist religions
Religious patriarchy, 3–4, 29–30, 113, 133, 190
Repentance, 141, 157, 164, 165, 166
Resistance: church involvement as, 7, 133, 187; to class domination, 186; everyday forms, 178, 186; to gender oppression, 9–10, 161, 176–77, 187; passive, 158–59, 172; romanticization, 11, 176
Revival meetings: contemporary, 22, 28, 210n25, 213–14n42, 214n45; Great Revival of 1907, 18, 28, 226–27n; missionary-sponsored, 212n36
Rhee, Syngman, 23–24, 54
Riesebrodt, Martin, 26
Salvation, 101, 104–5, 213n40. See also Conversions
Sanctified Church, 191
Schools: mission, 16, 64, 84, 112, 206n5; mothers’ involvement, 79. See also Education
Scott, James C., 186
Self: death of, 166–68, 234n16; dependence on God, 174–75. See also Identity
Self-centeredness. see Egoism
Self-confidence, 126–27, 128–29
Self-criticism, 165
Self-cultivation, 131–32
Self-esteem, 106–7, 122–23
Self-fulfillment, 129, 189
Self-transformation, 95, 99–100, 104–5
Seoul: churches, 1, 14; Gangbuk and Gangnam areas, 33; population, 33; Severance Hospital, 17. See also North River Church; South River Church Service worker role, 116
Severance Hospital, 17
Shamanism, 26, 228n9, 229n14–15
Shinto, 20–21, 209n19
Sin: evangelical understanding, 100, 108; repentance, 141, 157, 164, 165, 166; women’s violations of gender order, 138–39, 165
“Smarty” women, 137–38
Smith, Christian, 6
Social change. see South Korean society
Social engineering, 72–73
South Korea: anti-government protests, 24, 210–11n27; authoritarianism, 54, 57, 219n9; constitution, 66; democracy, 56, 57, 219n9; military dictatorship, 54–56; opening to external influences, 15–16; pro-American regimes, 23–24; U.S.
Index

occupation, 64. See also Economic development

South Korean society: change in contemporary, 196–97, 198, 199–200; church roles, 23; constraints on women’s choices, 178–79; educational emphasis, 79; effects of rapid economic development, 22–23, 56–58, 193; familism, 57, 184, 195; heterogeneity, 186–87; importance of family, 67; modernization, 8, 196–97; urban migration, 22–23. See also Classes; Confucianism; Gender and family relations; Patriarchy; Workforce

South River Church: cell groups, 36, 98–99, 100, 118–20, 166–67; cell leaders, 126, 132, 143–44; description, 33; divine love theme, 105; family seminar leaders, 137, 146, 148–49, 160; family seminars, 144–45, 158–59, 163; as fieldwork site, 32, 33, 34–37, 40–44, 45; leaders, 42–43; location, 32, 33; member interviews, 48–50, 51–52, 87, 88–89, 92–93, 108, 158–59, 162–63, 183; membership, 33, 36; pastors, 36–37, 40, 45, 105, 175; prayer services, 82–83; programs and activities, 36; training programs, 36, 132

Spirit. see Holy Spirit

Spiritual practice. see Cell groups; Conversations; Forgiveness; Healing; Prayers; Surrender

Stacey, Judith, 6

Status production work, 76–77, 78–79, 235–36

Spirit families, 63

Strength: obtained through conversion, 106–7; of women, 94, 142–43. See also Empowerment

Stress-related illnesses, 90–91, 110

Subjectivities. see Gender subjectivities

Submission, female: acceptance, 162–64, 169–70; as acquiescence, 149, 155, 159, 162–64; in church involvement, 116; coexistence with image of strong woman, 142–43; Confucian principles, 61–62; consequences, 157, 172; death of self, 166–68; disciplinary strategies, 166–69; evangelical teachings, 4, 6, 144–45, 153–55, 158–59, 160; to God’s authority, 161–62, 172; paradox, 149; passive resistance, 158–59, 172; rhetorical and disciplinary strategies for teaching, 164–69; as strategy for negotiating domestic situations, 6, 149–58, 162, 165–66; subversive gender bargaining acts, 159–62. See also Obedience

Subordinate groups, 10, 11

Subordinate status of women: Bible passages supporting, 113, 231n7; in churches, 31–32, 113, 116; Confucian principles, 51, 59, 60; consent to, 177–85, 195; in husband’s family, 51, 60, 78, 228n11; power relations with men, 185. See also Gender hierarchy; Patriarchy

Surrender: conversion as, 100–104, 105, 174–75; dying of self, 234n16; to Holy Spirit, 104; repeated experiences, 230n22
Taiwan: educational attainment, 65; patriarchal family system, 224–25; women’s workforce participation, 70–71
Testimonies, 100
Theological schools, 211
Tithing, 2, 28, 114, 125–26, 231
Traditionalist religions: appeal of, 192; empowerment of women, 7; instrumental involvement of women, 162; in Latin America, 5–6, 7, 162; liberating aspects, 7, 189–91, 205; paradox of women’s involvement in, 3; patriarchy supported by, 3, 190; scholarship on women and, 5–7, 10, 162, 176–77, 189–91, 192–94; in United States, 6, 7, 199; women’s motivations for involvement, 5–7.
See also Evangelicalism
Turkey, women’s experiences, 181
Turner, Victor, 161
Unification Church, 228
Unified Silla period, 59–60
United States: conservative gender ideology, 6, 199, 233; evangelical women, 6, 179, 191; missionaries to Korea, 15–16, 205; occupation of South Korea, 64; Orthodox Jewish women, 7, 199; relations with Korea, 15, 16, 23–24, 54; traditionalist religions, 6, 7, 199
Urban areas: churches, 1, 14, 23; isolation from extended family, 79; migration to, 22–23, 33. See also Seoul
Volunteer labor. see Church involvement of women
Wages: family, 68; gender-based inequality, 68–69, 199, 222; low, 55. See also Incomes
Welfare system, 57, 219
Williams, Raymond, 10
Wives. see Married women
Women: blamed for domestic conflicts, 136–41, 164–65; choices, 176, 178–79; education, 64, 65, 71, 91, 112–13, 126, 221; equality, 66, 199; ideal femininity, 138, 140; leadership in domestic sphere, 62; ordination of, 31, 113, 230; rights, 60, 66, 221; rulers, 60; societal constraints, 178–79; strength, 94, 106–7, 142–43. See also Evangelical church women; Gender; Married women; Motherhood; Workforce participation of women
Women’s missionarv organizations (yeosongyobu), 115–16, 120
Women’s organizations, 32, 72–73
Work. see Church involvement of women; Domestic labor; Workforce participation of women Workforce: labor disputes, 55, 68–69; manufacturing, 68, 69, 218; repressive government policies, 55, 57; segmented industrial structure, 68; South Korean, 55. See also Wages Workforce participation of women: as cheap labor, 68–69; clerical workers, 69, 221; equal employment opportunity, 66; gender-based discrimination, 68–69, 199, 223; increased rates, 65–66, 68, 197, 199, 221; international compar-sons, 70–71, 223n32; in Japan, 70–71, 223n30; in manufacturing, 68, 69, 221n22; of married women, 70, 71, 197, 199, 223n31; occupational segregation, 68, 69, 222n29, 223n30; policies discouraging, 68–73; professionals, 66, 69, 222n29; of single women, 70, 72, 198, 223n31; in Taiwan, 70–71

Working class, 35, 36. See also Lower-class women

Yeoido Full Gospel Church: demographics of membership, 228n10; pastor, 212–13n38; Pentecostal practices, 27; prayer center, 215n47; as world’s largest church, 2, 22, 204n3

Yeoseongyobu. See Women’s missionary societies

Yi dynasty, 15, 17, 58–59, 205–6n2

Yi Seungman (Syngman Rhee), 23–24, 54