Index

Italic page numbers refer to figures, maps, and tables.

agency: of god statues, 28, 44; internal and external, 6, 9–10, 28; of objects, 5–6, 9–10 alienation, 4, 51
ancestors: differences from deities, 33–34, 51; material forms and relationships, 36, 36; of spirit mediums, 56–57, 60–61; spirits, 33–35; statues, 34–35; tablets, 33–34

Bade: industry, 22, 107, 110–12; map, 19; Mazu temple, 156; migration to, 13, 21–22, 107–9
Bade, Wannian migrants in: adaptation, 109; chain migration, 22, 107, 108; challenges, 13, 14, 110–12; jobs, 13, 107, 109, 110–12; social networks, 109–10, 114, 118, 137–40; work injuries, 110–11, 118. See also Jingming shrine
Bao’an temple (Taipei), 158
Bloch, Maurice, 11
bodies: god statues as, 38–40; of Nazha, 181n10; souls and, 47, 51, 66–67, 71; of spirit mediums, 51, 59, 60, 63, 65, 66–67, 69; tablets as, 34. See also god statues; possessions
The Brief Account of Taiwanfu Maps (Taiwanfu Yutu Zuanyao), 79
Buddhism: pietistic movements, 103; Tzu Chi sect, 17, 166–67, 172 camps. See spirit soldiers capitalism, 94–96, 98, 103, 139, 142. See also neoliberalism Celestial Heart (T’ien-hsin chiao-p’ai) sect, 4, 76–78. See also Daoism: Celestial Heart chain migration, 107, 108
Chen, Hsin-Chih, 104–5 children: “godparenting” rite, 61–62; schools, 89; shrine activities, 126. See also youth China: Fujian province, 41; Qing dynasty, 146, 148–49; shrines, 104; temple construction, 98–99
Chinese popular religion. See popular religion
Chi Wangye (deity), 80
Ci’angong temple (Sanliaowan), 81–84
cities. See Bade; urban Taiwan
Comaroff, Jean, 14, 17, 139
Comaroff, John, 17
computer technology, 111, 131. See also Internet
confinement rice (shoujin mi), 61, 62 consulting deity ritual, 1–2, 45, 64–66, 67, 150–51 cosmic bonds (yuanfen), 17, 166–67 cosmological models: traditional, 9, 28, 41, 47, 51, 106; in urban areas, 106 dadaogong (sanliaowan deity), 80, 81, 83, 88 dadaogong statue (xuejia), 30, 31, 35, 49, 83, 88 dadaogong statue, first (wannian): base, 45, 46; branch statue for bade, 114, 157; brought to village, 28; departure of spirit, 49–50; legends, 48–49; as main deity, 30, 35; spirit medium, 31–32, 68–69 dadaogong statue, second (wannian), 30, 31, 35, 48–49, 68–69, 114 daoism: celestial heart (t’ien-hsin chiao-p’ai), 4, 76–78; deities, 154; priests, 53–54, 69
davis, scott, 105
deaths: funerals, 97, 129; of parents-in-law, 147–48; symbolic, 55, 56, 67 deities: anthropomorphized, 74–75; bureaucratic hierarchy, 3, 4, 12, 31, 50–51, 76–77, 78; communicating with, 54; defining, 32; delocalization, 15, 168; differences from ancestors, 33–34, 51; kinship relations, 31–32, 51, 68, 84–85; localization, 11–12, 51, 69, 75–76, 77; material forms and relationships, 36, 36, 50; materialization, 28, 37–40, 70, 72; personal relationships with, 4, 17, 51, 163–67, 172; power, 35, 40, 45, 72; translocal, 76, 92–94, 99; without statues, 47–48. see also god statues; spirit mediums delocalization, of deities, 15, 168 “dinglan saved his mother,” 33–34 divination blocks: statue carving and, 37; use by jingming spirit medium, divination chairs, 54, 56, 157
divine power. see magic power
Donglonggong (Temple of Eastern Prosperity, sanliaowan): activities, 21, 89; board members, 90–93, 96; construction, 84, 87; deities, 80, 84–89, 91–93; “fate-changing” rite, 95–96; financial contributions, 91–92, 93, 94, 96; god statues, 95, 96–98; migrants and, 21, 89–92, 93; regulations, 96–98; renaming, 92, 92, 98; renovations and reconstruction, 21, 90–92; spirit mediums, 94–96; taxes, 96
Donglonggong temple (pingdong), 84, 87
drumming, 123–25, 124
Durkheim, Emile, 4–5
emotions. see affective ties
exorcism rituals, 119, 125, 125, 134, 144–46, 145, 151 external agency, 6, 9–10, 28
Facebook, 122–24, 123, 124, 125
families. see ancestors; children; kinship relations Feuchtwang, Stephen, 106
fu-chou, 76, 78
Fujian Province, 41
funerals, 97, 129
gambling, 137–38
Geertz, Clifford, 7
Gell, Alfred, 5–6, 9, 10, 28, 51, 171
gender division of labor, 119–21, 124–26, 128, 130, 138 Gennep, Arnold van, 55
ghosts: cults, 3, 14; material forms and relationships, 36, 36 ghost temples, 103
god statues: agency, 28, 44; branch, 13, 95, 105, 113–14, 157; bringing to individual houses, 1–2, 45, 49, 64, 69–70, 96–98; carving, 36–41; coordination with spirit mediums, 2, 11, 69–70; in daily life, 44–45, 51–52, 97–98; damaged, 49–50; government attitudes, 27; as materialization of deity, 8–11, 37–40, 70; materials, 37, 40, 45; objects placed in cavities, 38, 39, 40, 41; presence of deity, 10, 38, 50, 70; private, 35; purposes, 32–33, 35–36, 51–52; relationship with worshippers, 33–34, 51–52; separation from spirits, 48–50; of Southern Song, 11–12, 74–75; in urban areas, 13, 14, 141. See also deities; rituals, consulting deity

Guanyin of Liuji, 30–31, 32, 35, 49

Hansen, Valerie, 11, 73, 74–76, 78, 98
Harvey, David, 112
healing, 45, 104, 157. See also exorcism rituals Heelas, Paul, 15–16, 18, 173
Ho, David, 167
Hong Mai, The Record of the Listener (Yijian zhi), 74–75
Huang, C. Julia, 17, 166–67
Huillingshan movement, 106
Humphrey, Caroline, 142, 168
Hu Ye statue, 30
Huizhou, 75–76
Hymes, Robert, 4, 12, 50, 51, 73, 76–78, 82, 98

idols. See god statues illnesses, 1–2, 61–62, 65–66, 149. See also healing images. See god statues incense burners, 43, 162–63
incense carriers, 43
Indian images, 6, 171
individualism, 15–16, 106–7, 169, 173
initiation ceremony: confinement, 55, 60–62, 158; “fire-crossing,” 55, 62–63, 63, 67, 158; “informing deity to select a medium,” 55–59; at Jingming shrine, 158; master of rites, 55, 58, 181n3, 181n8; “mobilizing spirit soldiers,” 58–59, 69, 181n7; “opening the five spirit camps,” 58; “opening the mouth,” 54–55, 57, 58; rebirth, 60, 62; symbolic death, 55, 56, 67; in Wannian, 54–63, 57, 58, 59 injustice during the Qing dynasty problem, 146, 148–49 internal agency, 6, 9, 28
Internet: blog, 121–22; Facebook, 122–24, 123, 124, 125, 125; research, 161; shrine activities and, 121–24, 125

Jade Emperor, 31, 49, 92–93, 137, 153–56
Jao Tung-t’ian, 76, 77
Japanese rule of Taiwan, 12, 18, 49, 83, 88, 90

Jingming shrine (Bade), 115; activities, 114, 119–27, 130, 137, 138, 140; board members, 136, 164–65; branch god statues, 113–14, 157; communication with deities, 117–18; divination block photographs, 141, 142; divination chair, 157; divine messages on bulletin board, 163–64, 164; exorcism rituals, 119, 125, 144–46, 145, 151; festivals, 129–30, 138; founding, 21, 103–4, 113–14, 157; miracle stories, 118, 146–49; monthly gatherings, 114, 119–20, 137, 160; parishioners’ relations with deities, 164–66; pilgrimages, 119, 120, 122–23, 152–53, 165; relations with other temples, 154–56; rituals, 114, 119, 120, 121, 140; services for outsiders, 17, 135–36, 147, 149, 151–53, 165, 166, 168; social function, 114, 118, 127; spirit-soldier camps, 114, 116; temple status, 137, 153–54; young people’s participation, 121–27, 128, 130. See also spirit medium, Jingming shrine

Jingming shrine (Bade) (continued)
spirit medium and, 117–18, 157–58.
See also Bade, Wannian migrants in Jingzhugong (territorial god) statue, 30, 31, 43, 48, 60–61
Jordan, David, 106–7
Kaohsiung, 13, 48, 83, 89, 90
Keane, Webb, 7
Kendall, Laurel, 142, 168
Kleeman, Terry, 78
Kleinman, Arthur, 13, 104, 105, 106, 173
Korea, urban shamanism, 142
Laoyegong (Hanfu Laoye) statue, 28, 30, 31, 49
Latour, Bruno, 5
Lindquist, Galina, 142, 168
Liuying, 30, 47, 180n19
Li Wangye (deity): arrival in Sanliaowan, 81–82, 83; birth anniversary, 88–89; branch statues, 95; consultations, 87; power, 92–93; as primary deity, 80; relations with other deities, 84–85; spirit medium, 90, 91–92, 94–96
localization: of deities, 47, 51, 69, 71; of magic power, 9, 171; in Southern Song period, 11–12, 75–76, 77 magic power (ling or lingli): of deities, 2; of divination blocks, 141; healing, 45, 104, 157; Marxist view, 4, 51; materialization, 8–11, 51, 70, 75, 170–71; personification, 9, 47, 51, 71, 78, 171; previous scholarship on, 2–4; social relations and, 9–10; of spirit mediums, 11; variability, 10. See also localization Marshall, Alison, 106 material culture, 4–8, 171
materialization: carving statues, 37–38, 39–40; of deities, 28, 37–40, 70, 72; of magic power, 8–11, 51, 70, 75, 170–71; social relations and, 9–10. See also god statues; localization; personification; spirit mediums
Material Religion, 7
Mazu (T’ien Hou), 3, 37
men, shrine activities, 119–21, 128, 130 merchants, emigrant, 76, 94 migrants: chain migration, 107, 108; connections maintained with hometowns, 103, 105, 139; donations to temples, 91–92, 93; in Kaohsiung, 13, 89, 90; kinship relations, 127, 131–35, 139–40; merchants, 76, 94; overseas Chinese, 139; previous scholarship on, 139; from Sanliaowan, 12, 21, 83, 89–92, 93, 94, 99; social networks, 105; successful, 90–91; in urban areas, 12–13, 15, 91, 104–5; from Wannian, 13, 20, 48. See also Bade, Wannian migrants in Miller, Daniel, 5
Morphy, Howard, 6
Nankunshen, 49, 81–82, 88, 95
Nazha, 181n10
Needham, Rodney, 7
neoliberalism, 13, 17, 111, 112
New Age religions, 106, 169, 173
Northern Song period, 78
objectification, 5, 10
objects: agency, 5–6, 9–10, 28; power, 8; theories, 4–5
Ong, Aihwa, 14
Pas, Julian, 78
Overmyer, Daniel, 106–7
overseas Chinese, 139
Parry, Jonathan, 11
Peking, 181n10
personification, 9, 47, 51, 71, 78, 171
Pingdong County, Donglonggong temple, 84, 87
Index

popular religion: affective orientation, 171–73; capitalist values and, 95, 98, 103; changes in Taiwan, 103, 106–7, 173; changes in urban areas, 141–42, 149–51, 167–69, 172; in China, 98–99, 106; cultural basis, 9; differences from other religions, 23, 71, 171; diffused character, 9; internalization, 71–72; previous scholarship on, 2–4, 9, 12, 13–14, 15; sectarian societies, 106–7; in Southern Song, 4, 11–12, 74–78. See also deities; god statues; spirit mediums; temples possessions, 55–56, 58–59, 65, 67, 70 power. See magic power

Qing dynasty, 146, 148–49

The Record of the Listener (Yijian zhi, Hong Mai), 74–75 religion: definition, 7; individualism and, 15–16, 106–7, 169, 173; New Age, 106, 169, 173; self-, 15, 169; subjectivization, 16, 173. See also popular religion religious studies, material culture and, 6–8 rituals, consulting deity: bringing god statue to house, 1–2, 45, 69–70; “fate-changing,” 2, 95–96; possession by deity, 65–66, 70; talismans, 151, 152; visions, 64–65, 67. See also divination blocks; spirit mediums rituals, exorcism, 119, 125, 126, 134, 144–46, 145, 151 rituals, “godparenting,” 61–62 rituals, god statue carving: “entering of the spirit,” 10, 38, 39, 70; “opening the vision and dotting the eyes,” 34, 38–40; “opening with an axe,” 37–38, 39 rituals, god statue worship: “dividing fire,” 43; “fire-walking,” 41–42, 44; “rewarding the spirit-soldiers,” 41, 114, 119; “scooping water,” 43 rituals, initiation: confinement, 55, 60–62, 158; “fire-crossing,” 55, 62–63, 65, 67, 158; at Jingming shrine, 158; master of rites, 55, 58, 181n3, 181n8; “mobilizing spirit soldiers,” 58–59, 69, 181n7; “opening the five spirit camps,” 58; “opening the mouth,” 54–55, 57, 58; rebirth, 60, 62; symbolic death, 55, 56, 67; in Wannian, 54–63, 57, 58, 59 rituals, life-cycle: families, 62; funerals, 97, 129; god statues and, 44; migrant families and, 128–29, 131–32; weddings, 128 rituals, purification: house-purifying, 45; oil-boiling, 22, 119, 120 rituals, spirit medium selection, 44; “informing deity to select a medium,” 55–59; at Jingming shrine, 157–58; localization and, 69; “opening the mouth,” 54–55, 57, 58

rural Taiwan. See migrants; Sanliaowan; Wannian Village

Russia, urban shamanism, 142

Sangren, Steven, 3, 51, 72

Sanliaowan: Big Dipper mounds, 86; Ci’angong temple, 81–84; emigrants from, 12, 21, 83, 89–92, 93, 94, 99; festivals, 88–89; history, 21, 79, 81–84, 88, 89, 99; local deities, 12, 80, 81–89, 98; maps, 19, 80, 86; population, 20, 21; salt zone, 20–21, 79, 87; spirit mediums, 94–96; storefront shrine, 21; surname groups, 79, 82; territorial identity, 88; watercourse system, 83, 85–86, 86. See also Donglonggong

Sanqing Temple (Yilan), 137, 154, 155

Sanriaowan: Big Dipper mounds, 86; Ci’angong temple, 81–84; emigrants from, 12, 21, 83, 89–92, 93, 94, 99; festivals, 88–89; history, 21, 79, 81–84, 88, 89, 99; local deities, 12, 80, 81–89, 98; maps, 19, 80, 86; population, 20, 21; salt zone, 20–21, 79, 87; spirit mediums, 94–96; storefront shrine, 21; surname groups, 79, 82; territorial identity, 88; watercourse system, 83, 85–86, 86. See also Donglonggong

Shahar, Meir, 3
Shi, Tien-Fu, 88

shrines: in China, 104; private, 103; in Sanliaowan, 21; social functions, 105; in urban areas, 103, 104–6, 166, 167–68. See also Jingming shrine

Southern Song period, popular religion, 4, 11–12, 74–78

South Kalimantan, 14, 168
Index

spirit medium, Jingming shrine: assistants, 119, 120, 126; background, 156–57; consultations, 150–53, 159; core members and, 117–18, 119, 138; divination block miracle, 141; divination method, 140, 143–44, 146, 149, 150–51, 154–56, 159–61, 159, 162, 168; interpretation, 158; interpreter, 119, 120, 120, 147–48, 149; motives for service, 135–36; personal relationship with deities, 17, 158–60, 162; possessions by deity, 119, 120, 120, 126, 126; practices changed by, 14, 15, 149–51, 158–64, 168; relations with other temples, 154–56; selection, 157–58; shrine founding and, 113–14; talismans commanded in advance, 151, 152; travels, 137, 138, 151, 163; on urban problems, 143–44, 149–50 spirit mediums (jitong): affective ties, 10; ancestors of, 56–57, 60–61; bodies, 51, 59, 60, 63, 65, 66–67, 69; communication through, 54–55, 62, 65, 158–64; consulting deity ritual, 1–2, 45, 64–66, 67, 150–51; coordination with god statues, 2, 11, 69–70; criminals caught by, 87; fees for services, 62, 95, 96, 135; healing, 45, 104, 157; initiation ceremony, 54–63, 67, 158, 181n7; interpreters, 180n7; kinship relations among, 68–69; as materialization of deity, 8, 10–11, 70; power, 8, 11, 67, 68, 70; previous scholarship on, 11–12; relationship with deity, 17, 61, 66–69, 71, 72, 136, 158–64; relationship with worshippers, 62, 70; roles, 10, 54, 61, 62; rural-urban differences, 14, 104, 158–64, 168; in Sanliaowan, 94–96; selection, 44, 54–57, 67, 69, 157–58; subjectivity, 14, 160, 162; in urban areas, 13–14, 104, 105, 106, 141–42; visions, 60, 64–65, 67, 68, 162. See also rituals spirit mediums, Wannian Village: addressing other gods, 31–32; communication with deities, 30, 162–63; consulting deity ritual, 1–2, 45, 64–66; healing rituals, 157; initiation ceremony, 54–63, 57, 58, 59; interpreters, 33, 64, 65, 66, 162–63; selection, 44 spirits: of ancestors, 33–35; evil, 45, 95; grievances, 148–49; material forms and relationships, 36, 36; separation from statues, 48–50; types, 36; wandering, 35–36. See also deities; possessions spirit soldiers: camps, 9, 40–41, 40, 42, 45, 58, 59, 62, 69, 114; flags, 40, 42; mobilizing, 58–59, 69, 181n7; obtaining, 43; rewarding, 41, 114, 119

Strathern, Marilyn, 6, 51

Sutton, Donald, 60

tables, ancestral, 33–34

Taipei: migrants, 13, 104–5; shrines, 105; temples, 21, 158

Taiwan: ghost cults, 3; industrialization, 12–13, 20, 21–22, 89, 91, 93–94, 103, 109; Japanese rule, 12, 18, 49, 83, 88, 90; maps, 19, 155; popular religion, 3, 103, 106–7, 173

talisman, 66, 151, 152

Taoism. See Daoism

Taoyuan County: industrialization, 21–22, 109; migration to, 13, 21–22, 107. See also Bade

Taussig, Michael, 14

Taylor, Charles, 16

temples: in China, 98–99; networks, 83, 137, 153, 154–56, 155; orientations to villages or external world, 95–96; reconstruction, 103; in urban areas, 21; for wandering spirits, 35. See also Donglonggong; shrines

Three Immortals of Mount Hua-kai, 77–78, 82

Tiantan Temple (Tainan), 137, 154–56, 155

Tian Yuanshuai, 81, 82

T’ien Hou (Mazu), 3, 37

Tilley, Christopher, 4–5

Ting, Jen-Chieh, 106
translocal deities, 76, 92–94, 99
Tsing, Anna Lowenhaupt, 168
Turner, Victor, 2
Tzu Chi sect, 17, 166–67, 172

Uma Adang, 14, 168
underworld, 43, 56, 60
urban shamanism, 142, 168
urban Taiwan: causes of illness or misfortune, 143–44, 149–50; god statues, 13, 14, 141; shrines, 103, 104–6, 166, 167–68; spirit mediums, 13–14, 104, 105, 106, 141–42; temples in, 21. See also Bade; migrants

Verities of the Three Perfected Lords Fu-ch’iu, Wang, and Kuo of Hua-Kai Mountain, 77 villages. See Sanliaowan; Wannian Village visions, 60, 64–65, 67, 68, 162

Wannian Village: conflicts with other villages, 48–49; deities, 1–2, 28–33, 47–51; economy, 18–20; emigrants from, 13, 20, 48; farmers, 18, 20, 28, 179n11; god statues, 28–33, 37, 36, 37–39, 49–50; history, 18, 28–30; Japanese occupation, 49; maps, 19, 29, 30; New Year’s holiday, 130; population, 18, 28; rituals, 42–44, 49–50; statues of ancestors, 34–35; temple, 2, 21, 30–31, 43, 114, 180n4; views of urban religious practices, 162–63. See also Bade, Wannian migrants in; spirit mediums, Wannian Village
Watson, James, 3
Weller, Robert, 3, 14, 103, 139
Wen Wangye (deity), 80, 84–88, 98
Wolf, Arthur, 3, 12, 31, 50, 72
women: seen as unclean, 181n6; shrine activities, 121, 122, 128, 130, 132–33
Woodhead, Lina, 18
Wude Temple (Yunlin), 137, 154, 155
Wu Wangye (deity), 80, 81, 82–83, 88, 95

Xizhou, Zhanghua, 67
Xuejia: Dadaogong statue, 30, 31, 35, 49, 83, 88; “dividing fire” ritual, 43; maps, 30; region, 83; temple, 30, 43, 180n2
Yang, C. K., 9, 71
Yang, K. S., 167
youth: on Facebook, 122–24, 123, 124, 125, 127, Jingming shrine activities, 121–27, 128, 130
You Wangye: command tablet, 30, 47, 180n19; statue, 31, 180n19
Yü, Chün-fang, 11–12, 78
Yuchui Daitianfu, 92. See also Donglonggong
Zhen'an Temple (Yunlin), 137, 154, 155
Zhupu, 48–49