Contents

Figures and Tables ix
Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1
   City in Crisis 5
   Survival Tactics 12
   Women on the Run, Police on the Beat 19
   Conceiving Womanhood 24
   The Everydayness of Legal Records 28

I. Precarious Livelihoods

1 Working Women 37
   The Evolution of zhiye 41
   Women and the Urban Political Economy 44
   Women in Factories 53
   Service Work 62
   Home Spaces, Work Places 70
   Work, Sex, and Sex Work 75

2 The Politics of Dependency 86
   Money Matters 90
   Punishing Runaway Wives 101
   Desperate Wives and Anxious Husbands 111

II. Among Neighbors

3 Women in the Tenements 123
   “Walls within Walls” 126
   A City on the Move 132
   Tenements in the Making 137
Contents

Locating Tenements 147
Stigmatizing the Tenement 154
Women’s Networks 165

4 Managing Serial Marriages 181
   The Wedding Scene 184
   “A Heavy Drain on Family Resources” 193
   Marriage in Flux 196
   Between Law and Custom 199
   Under the State’s Gaze 206

III. On the Move

5 Mobility and Survival Tactics 221
   Life in Motion 224
   The Lines 235
   Roads in Peace and War 242
   “Investing” in Crime 249
   The Market for Women 252
   Smuggled Commodities 261

6 Policing Mobility 275
   “A Gendered Undertaking” 279
   “A Home Away from Home” 286
   The Regime of Registration 292
   Policing Anytime and Everywhere 300
   The State in Action 307

Conclusion 318
   Framing Everyday Suffering 321
   Remaking the Neighborhood Economy 326
   Women and Socialist Grassroots Governance 329

List of Abbreviations 335

Bibliography 335

Index 357