Figures

2. Selected Counties in North China 8
3. Districts of Beijing, 1937–49 14
4. Tiger Baby and Nurse 65
5. Seamstresses Sewing Outdoors 74
6. Prostitute Signs 79
7. The Layout of a Standard Three-jin Courtyard Compound 127
8. Two Scenes from the American Board District in Early Twentieth-Century Beijing 152
9. Meng Yuzhen’s Personal Network 167
10. Wedding Procession 187
11. Wedding Carriage 192
12. Wedding Band 192
13. The Municipal Marriage Certificate of Shi Qijian and Guang Lei Shi 212
14. Truck Stuck in the Mud 228
15. American Board District, Blind Beggar 229
16. Street with Vendors’ Carts, Rickshaws, and Bicycles 230
17. Old Man and Donkey 231
18. Qianmen East Station 239
19. Railroads and Major Roads in and around Beijing 242
20. Opium Cultivation in Republican China, 1924–37 266
Tables

1.1 Residents’ Occupations, Beijing (1932–33) ........................................ 54
1.2 Handicraft Workshops in the Outer-3 District, December 1943 .......... 56
1.3 Factories in the Outer-3 District, December 1943 ............................... 56
1.4 Workers in Beijing, December 1949 .................................................. 57
2.1 Wholesale Prices of Chief Food Items in Beijing (in yuan per jin), June 1940 ...................... 93
2.2 Wholesale Price Index in Beijing, January–March 1943 .................... 94
2.3 Price Index and Increase of Note Issues in Beijing, 1939–45 .......... 97
2.4 Prices of Food and Other Necessities in Beijing (in yuan per jin), November–December, 1944 .................. 97
2.5 Value of Note Issues by Government Banks, 1937–45 ..................... 99
3.1 Population in Qing Beijing, 1647–1910 ........................................... 138
3.2 Population in Republican Beijing (by year) .................................... 138
3.3 Population in Republican Beijing (by administrative unit) .......... 139
3.4 Relationship between Abductors and Their Victims (by type of connection) .................. 161
3.5 Relationship between Abductors and Their Victims (by residence) .... 161
4.1 Wedding Feast Menu of Feng Ze Yuan Restaurant .......................... 190
5.1 Sex Ratio in Beijing, 1912–36 (by year) .......................................... 255
5.2 Sex Ratio in Beijing, 1945 (by district) .......................................... 256
6.1 Population Movement in Beijing ................................................. 297