Index

Italic page numbers refer to figures.

academy system, 116–22, 127–28, 131, 133, 147
Adams, Francis O., 70, 73
afterlife theology, 120, 149–50, 160
Agriculture and Commerce Ministry, 193, 275n33, 279n79
Aizawa Seishisai, 4, 199; New Theses (Shinron), 20–23, 24, 96, 249n4
Alcock, Rutherford, 62, 89–90
Amaterasu: belief in, 242; filial devotion to, 22; as imperial ancestor, 40; imperial mandate, 149; ritual veneration, 180; shrines, 43, 116, 149; as supreme deity, 38–39, 46, 253n100 ancestor veneration, 40, 105–6, 124–25, 167, 180
Ancient Shrine and Temple Preservation Law (Koshaji hozonhō), 185, 205–7, 208, 214, 232, 280n101
Anesaki Masaharu, 237
Annam (Vietnam), 64, 169, 258n38
Antoni, Klaus, 11
Aoki Shūzō: Dai nihon seiki, 87, 263n34; on Department of Divinities, 198; as foreign minister, 215, 278n72, 283n140; Religion Bill, 283n138; Shimaji and, 123; as student in Germany, 79, 85, 164
Asad, Talal, 53, 242
Asahi shinbun, 223
Asō Tarō, 292n27
Assembly of Three Religions (Sankyō kaidō), 235–37, 243, 290–91n8
Atsuta shrine, 51
Auslin, Michael, 77 authority: of imperial institution, 19–21, 24, 26–27, 28, 37, 47, 53–54, 242; mystical foundation, 100–101; of state, 53 bakufu. See Tokugawa government
Bismarck, Otto von, 57, 85–86, 87, 91, 166, 229, 261n114
Brandt, Max August von, 69
Breen, John, 25, 70–71, 79
Britain: Anglican Church, 79, 170, 256n7; Commerce and Navigation Treaty, 201; consuls, 44; education, 85; Iwakura Embassy, 78–79; ministers in Japan, 62, 67–68, 69–70, 71, 73, 89; monarchy, 157, 158, 163; Normanton Incident, 278n71; religion and national identity, 9; Roman Catholic Relief Act, 57, 256n5; sailors, 21; treaty revision negotiations, 200, 201, 278n71. See also treaty powers
Brown, Delmar, 242
Buddhism: anti-Christian groups, 171, 172; campaign to counter Christianity, 48, 50, 122–23, 126; Christians converted to, 44, 45; compared to Christianity, 79; co-opting, 176;
Buddhism (continued)
criticism of, 22–23, 29, 88; in education, 218; financial support, 117; funerals, 22–23, 32, 45, 134, 148, 250n42; kōninkyō movement, 196, 212–14, 217–18; as majority faith, 175–76, 222–24, 232; marginalization fears, 196–97; Ministry of Doctrine and, 111, 122–23, 124, 125; as national religion, 102, 104, 138, 160, 164, 165, 186, 214, 263n34; political activity limited, 201; relations with Meiji state, 29–31, 47–48, 50, 52, 122, 123, 125, 129; as religion, 95, 122, 124, 125, 214; removal from imperial rituals, 28–29; self-regulation, 113, 122, 126, 127, 140, 177, 202; separation from Shinto, 19, 29–32, 45, 128; separation from state, 29–32; separation of deities from kami, 3, 4, 29; social function, 79, 189; as state religion, 87; suppression, 22, 264n55; Tokugawa reforms, 22, 29
Buddhism Bill (Bukkyō hōan), 221–22, 225
Buddhist clerics: abbots, 137; conscription exemption, 226; education, 116; funerals, 148; laicized, 22, 29, 198; Ministry of Doctrine regulation, 112; monks, 22, 29, 30–31; nuns, 29, 42; ordinations, 112–13, 176; political activity, 184–85, 197, 198, 229–30; political influence, 200–201, 223–24, 227, 228–29; precepts, 30–31, 112; prison chaplains, 282n126; relationship to state, 176, 177; shrine registration, 42; violence against Christians, 171. See also doctrinal instructors Buddhist sects: autonomy, 113, 140, 142, 176, 177; conversion between, 134; criticism of Christianity, 212; disputes, 202, 279n83, 279n85; doctrinal instructors, 113; financial support, 147; Imperial Diet and, 184–85, 195, 222–24, 228–29; landholdings, 113–14; legal status, 221–23; official recognition sought, 196–97; potential marginalization, 188–89; Religion Bill and, 221–24, 227, 228–29; religious legislation and, 209–10; Shingon, 113–14, 212–13, 224; Sōtō, 114, 202, 279n83; superintendents, 113, 177, 178, 197, 201, 202, 222, 279n85. See also Shin sect
Buddhist temples: academy system and, 117, 127, 128; closed, 22, 29, 30; dissociation from shrines, 29; equivalent treatment to shrines, 193, 194, 202; funeral monopoly, 22–23, 32; hierarchy, 222, 227; landholdings, 30, 113–14, 192–93, 201–2, 275n33, 288n212; legal status, 208–9, 218, 220, 230; preservation of historical buildings, 201–2, 205–7, 214, 280n96, 280n101; registration of parishioners, 22, 29, 31–32, 33, 34, 42; state financial support, 192–93; state regulation, 111–12, 122, 136, 225; state support, 205–6; tax exemption, 225, 227
Bureau of Shinto Affairs (Shintō jimukyoku): convention, 151–53; establishment, 143; factions, 143–44, 149–54; financial support, 146–47, 148, 151; imperial court and, 145, 146; new religions and, 147; Pantheon Dispute, 114, 140, 149–54, 163; petition on Department of Divinities, 174–75; regulation of Shinto, 144–45, 146, 148, 151–52, 153, 161, 162, 163; relations with government, 144, 146–47
burials. See funerals
Cabinet Legislation Bureau, 192
Catholic Church: bishops, 65, 221; clergy, 87, 104; in Germany, 85–86, 91; in Italy, 87; relationship to state,
Index

89–90, 176; schools, 85–86; seen as foreign influence, 103–4, 176; Vatican, 2, 63, 104, 176, 221, 288n223. See also Christianity

Catholic missionaries: demonizing, 21; French, 33, 34, 45–46, 62, 63, 64–65, 169, 259n66; Jesuits, 85–86; in Nagasaki, 63, 64–65, 85; in Vietnam, 169; in Yokohama, 62, 257n28. See also missionaries

Catholics: in Britain, 57; conversions, 10; in Europe, 80, 85–86, 103–4; in Ireland, 256n15; protests of Iwakura Embassy, 80; relations with Protestants, 57, 103–4; students, 2

Central Council (Seiin), 50–51, 255n137

Chamberlain, Basil Hall, 1

Charter Oath Ceremony, 26–27, 66, 250n31–32

China: Sino-French War, 169; Sino-Japanese War, 201

Chōya shinbun, 157

Christian civilization: appeals to, 8, 57, 58, 61, 67; defense against, 3–4; foreign relations and, 165, 272n6; identification with progress, 83, 169

Christian conversion: attractiveness, 19; misconceptions of, 21–22; rumors, 166–67, 171; supporters, 79, 83; as threat, 20, 24, 34–35, 48–49, 53–54. See also conversion

Christian converts: executions, 63, 64; funerals, 33, 44–45, 135, 163, 170, 178; loyalty to emperor, 45–46; as martyrs, 63; Meiji policies, 34–35, 36–38, 41–46; number in Japan, 169, 171, 282n122; persecution, 74, 259n59; in politics and public sphere, 195–96, 273n12, 276n47, 277n148, 287n203; proselytizing by educators, 195, 217; reconvert¬ing by persuasion, 10, 35, 36–38, 41–42, 44–46; teachers in public schools, 276n45; in Tokugawa era, 33–34, 63–66; underground, 33–34, 63–64, 66; in Yokohama, 135. See also missionaries; Urakami Christians

Christianity: clergy, 235–36; compared to Buddhism, 79; competition with other religions, 200; diplomatic negotiations on status, 55–57, 58–59, 61, 63, 64–65, 67–72, 167–69; Eastern Orthodox churches, 87–88; emperor seen as in competition with, 43, 45, 49, 70; established churches, 87, 102, 272n5; excluded from religious freedom, 134–35; as foreign influence, 168, 195; lack of regulation, 195–96; legalization, 171–72, 174, 176, 187, 193, 195–96; Meiji policies, 70–71; organizations opposing, 168, 171, 172–73; private belief, 84; regulation of, 187–88, 210, 214–15, 218, 289n246; Religion Bill and, 221, 225; religious settlement and, 171, 176, 187; Russian Orthodox Church, 21, 87, 135; silent toleration, 56, 81, 169; as threat, 176–77; tolerance of, 53, 164–65, 176; in treaty ports, 61–63; uniform regulatory treatment, 169–71, 212, 230, 232–33; variations, 83–84, 87–88; in West, 56, 85–87, 91, 165, 169; Western imperialism and, 8. See also Catholic Church; Protestant Christianity

Christianity, ban on: debates on ending, 74–75; diplomatic pressure to end, 73, 75, 76–77; enforcement by Meiji government, 10, 19, 32, 41, 66–68, 81; enforcement by Tokugawa government, 31–32, 33–34, 62–65; lifting, 80–81; notice boards, 55–56, 67–68, 77, 80–81, 110, 134; responses to diplomatic pressure, 33, 34, 77–78; status, 134–35, 163; supporters, 174; in Tokugawa era, 58–59, 62–65, 258n45; Western criticism of, 74. See also religious freedom

Christian schools: Conflict between Education and Religion debate, 195–96; effects of mixed residence, 210; elementary schools closed, 284n154; in Europe, 85–86; faculty,
Christian schools (continued)
195, 276n44–45; influence, 195, 276n46; number in Japan, 282n122; religious freedom and, 216–17; religious instruction, 212, 216–17, 284n155; state regulation, 215–16, 284n149 civilization and enlightenment (bunmei kaika), 79, 93, 95, 121, 172 civil unrest, 235–36

clerics: Assembly of Three Religions, 235–37, 243, 290–91n8; military conscription exemption, 220, 226, 288n217; political activity limited, 197–98, 201, 229–30, 289n245; prison chaplains, 282n126; state regulation, 220, 221. See also Buddhist clerics; shrine priests cognitive relativism. See social pluralism and cognitive relativism Commerce and Navigation Treaty with Great Britain, 201
Conflict between Education and Religion debate, 195–96
Confucianism: campaign to counter Christianity, 48; compared to Protestantism, 88; in education system, 154–55, 156, 159; moral education, 106, 156; as religion, 106, 107; scholars, 106–7; variants, 22; Western interest, 88
Conservative Impartial Party (Hoshu chūseitō), 173 conservatives, 16, 155, 159, 169, 172–74, 190–91. See also Motoda Nagazane Constitutional Government (Kenseitō) Party, 224, 287n203 constitutional governments: fear of, 188; imperial institution and, 105, 157, 158, 163–64; religion and, 233, 283n140 constitutionalism, 158–59, 163–64. See also Freedom and People's Rights Movement Constitutional Reform Party (Rikken kaishintō), 199, 202, 204, 278n66 constitutions: Dai ni hō seiki, 87, 263n34; European, 186; Freedom and People's Rights Movement draft, 157; post-1945, 105; religious issues, 164–65, 167; Seitaisho, 27. See also Imperial Constitution conversion: crisis of, 4, 19–21, 23, 49, 53–54; by persuasion, 10, 36–38, 44–46; as unsettling, 10. See also Christian conversion Council of the Evangelical Alliance, 78
Council of the Left (Sain): academy system, 116; function, 255n137; members, 255n141; Ministry of Doctrine and, 48, 49, 50, 111, 124, 135–36; support of religious freedom, 136
Council of State (Dajōkan): cremation ban, 115, 131; “Essence of the Great Doctrine” (“Taikyō shiyō”), 46–47; imperial institution and, 26; Ministry of Doctrine and, 49, 112, 136; Pantheon Dispute and, 151, 152, 153; religious policies, 30, 105; religious settlement, 177–81; Shinto regulation and, 161 cremation, ban on, 115, 131, 148, 264n70. See also funerals Crisis of 1881, 158–59, 162

Dai ni hō seiki, 87, 263n34 de Bellecourt, Gustave Duchesne, 62–63, 257n28 deities. See kami
De Long, Charles E., 69, 71, 76, 81
democracy: elections, 188, 195, 199–201; in Japan, 132–33, 241; representative, 155, 185, 194
Dentō, 212–13, 218
Department of Divinities (Jingikan): alternatives, 275n30; calls for revival,
Index

174–75, 191, 198, 199–201, 203–5, 207, 275n37; Deity Hall, 40, 51, 250n42, 253n102; elimination, 50; executives, 31, 251n57; revival, 18, 25, 249n26; Shinto renewal and, 36; theological debates, 39–41, 149. See also Great Promulgation Campaign; Missionary Office

Derrida, Jacques, 100

Diet. See Imperial Diet
diplomacy: influence on Meiji religious policies, 56, 167–71, 180, 243; Iwakura Embassy negotiations, 76–78; negotiations on status of Christianity, 55–57, 58–59, 61, 63, 64–65, 67–72; Urakami Christians as issue, 61, 64, 66. See also treaty revision negotiations; unequal treaties diplomatic corps, Western, 35, 61–63, 67–68

Doak, Kevin, 2
doctrinal instructors (kyōdōshoku): abolition of system, 171, 175, 177, 182; appointments, 113, 132, 137, 145; Buddhist clerics, 52; criticism of system, 159–60; financial support, 114–15, 117, 144; funerals conducted by, 115, 135, 148, 160; heterogeneous origins, 117, 264n58; hierarchy, 113; joint proselytizing, 111, 121, 131, 133; licensing, 112, 114, 137; number of, 114; political function, 118; preaching, 121–22, 266n116; private status, 110, 116, 144; purpose of system, 94–95; reforms proposed, 116; as religionists, 114, 117, 144, 146, 160–61; religious freedom, 133–34; sectarian regulation, 133–34; supervision, 114, 115, 116, 120–21, 133, 160. See also academy system doctrinal instructors (kyōdōshoku), Shinto: administrative control, 114, 144–45; convention, 153; dissociating from shrine priests, 160–61, 162, 189; financial support, 115, 117, 146, 270n76; funerals conducted by, 148, 160; heterogeneous origins, 147; licensing, 137; opposition to legalized Christianity, 174; separation from shrine priests, 3, 144, 146 doctrine: as generic category, 50; Protestant view, 56; separation from ritual, 19, 47–53, 109, 111, 191; separation from rule, 136, 137, 138. See also Ministry of Doctrine; national doctrine

Dutch Reformed missionaries, 73

Eastern Orthodox churches, 87–88. See also Christianity; Russian Orthodox Church Edict Proclaiming the Great Teaching, 32–33, 37 education: Conflict between Education and Religion debate, 195–96; Confucianism in, 154–55, 156, 159; effects of mixed residence, 210, 211, 283n143; in Europe, 217; German studies, 159, 163; higher, 2, 155, 215; Imperial Rescript on, 3, 28, 141, 156, 174, 179; imperial statement, 154–55; Meiji policies, 154–56, 159, 215, 261n125; moral, 106, 156; private schools, 215–17, 218, 221; public schools, 117, 159, 284n154; relationship to religion, 82; religion in, 57, 85, 215–18, 284n155; religious studies, 237–38, 239–40, 291n10; separation from religion, 1, 16, 82, 84–85, 238, 282n125; state control, 84, 85–86, 215–18; in West, 57, 82, 84–86, 217. See also Christian schools; doctrinal instructors; Imperial Rescript on Education

Education Ministry. See Ministry of Education

Education Ordinance (Kyōikurei), 1879, 84
Eleven Themes (Jūichi kendai), 118–20, 134 emperor. See imperial institution; Meiji, Emperor England. See Britain
“Essence of the Great Doctrine” (“Taikyō shiyō”), 46–47 established churches, 87, 102–3, 170, 186, 225, 272n5. See also religious tolerance ethics. See morality
Etō Shinpei, 48–49, 50, 94, 118, 124, 266n132
Europe: anti-Catholicism, 103–4;
constitutions, 186; education, 84, 85, 217; established churches, 87, 272n5;
Itō Hirobumi in, 164–66; Japanese students, 79, 89, 97, 98; legal theory, 103–4; public education, 57; religiosity of elites, 165. See also Iwakura Embassy; treaty powers; and individual nations faith, 2, 98, 107, 108, 132, 223. See also private belief
faith healing. See popular religion
filial devotion, 22, 26, 28, 37, 47, 156
Fillmore, Millard, 58–59
Finance Ministry, 181–82, 191–92
Fish, Hamilton, 76–77, 78
Fitzgerald, Timothy, 9
foreigners: diplomatic corps, 61–63, 67–68; economic and cultural influences, 210; religious freedom, 59,
60, 216–17; in treaty ports, 35, 61–62,
77, 257n123; violence against, 35, 62,
66. See also missionaries; mixed
residence
Foreign Ministry (Gaikokukan), 41, 44,
110, 214. See also diplomacy
forestry bills, 201–2, 208, 275n33, 279n79
fortune-telling. See popular religion
Foucault, Michel, 129
France: Catholic missionaries from, 33,
34, 45–46, 62, 63, 64–65, 169, 259n66;
Japanese consul, 72; ministers in Japan, 62–63, 64–65, 69; relations
with Japan, 62–63; ships, 64;
Sino-French War, 169; Vietnamese
colony, 64, 169, 258n38
Freedom and People’s Rights Movement (Jiyū minken undō): Charter
Oath and, 27; draft constitutions, 157;
government responses, 140, 154,
155–56, 158–59, 163–64; members, 199,
204; newspapers, 157; as opposition
movement, 154; positions, 277n59;
view of emperor, 157–58
freedom of religion. See religious freedom
Fridell, Wilbur M., 141, 182, 183, 185
Fujii Takeshi, 130
Fujiiwa Masanobu, 121, 130–31
Fukuba Bisei: conversion by persuasion
effort, 36; at Department of Divinities, 31, 39, 40, 41, 251n57, 253n102; at Ministry of Divinities, 50; Ministry
of Doctrine and, 111
Fukuchi Ōchi, 149, 157
Fukushima Kanryū, 130
Fukuzawa Yukichi, 95, 107–8, 125–26, 142
funerals: Buddhist, 22–23, 32, 45, 134,
148, 250n42; Christian, 44–45, 135,
163, 170, 178; conducted by doctrinal
instructors, 115, 135, 160; private, 81,
163, 170, 178; state regulation, 112, 148.
See also Shinto funerals
Furukawa Miyuki, 150
Furuya Nisshin, 196
German studies, 159, 163
Germany: Itō Hirobumi in, 164–66;
Iwakura Embassy, 85–86, 261n114;
Japanese students, 79, 85, 164;
Kulturkampf, 57, 85–86, 91, 102
Girard, Prudence S. B., 62
Gneist, Rudolf von, 164, 165
Goble, Jonathan, 74
Gotō Shōjirō, 35, 48, 94, 266n132
grammar of religion. See political grammar of religion
Granville, Lord, 78
Great Doctrine. See national doctrine
Great Japan Buddhist Alliance (Dai
nihon bukkyōto dōmeikai), 222–23
faith healing. See popular religion
filial devotion, 22, 26, 28, 37, 47, 156
Fillmore, Millard, 58–59
Finance Ministry, 181–82, 191–92
Fish, Hamilton, 76–77, 78
Fitzgerald, Timothy, 9
foreigners: diplomatic corps, 61–63, 67–68; economic and cultural
influences, 210; religious freedom, 59,
60, 216–17; in treaty ports, 35, 61–62,
77, 257n123; violence against, 35, 62,
66. See also missionaries; mixed
residence
Foreign Ministry (Gaikokukan), 41, 44,
110, 214. See also diplomacy
forestry bills, 201–2, 208, 275n33, 279n79
fortune-telling. See popular religion
Foucault, Michel, 129
France: Catholic missionaries from, 33,
34, 45–46, 62, 63, 64–65, 169, 259n66;
Japanese consul, 72; ministers in Japan, 62–63, 64–65, 69; relations
with Japan, 62–63; ships, 64;
Sino-French War, 169; Vietnamese
colony, 64, 169, 258n38
Freedom and People’s Rights Movement (Jiyū minken undō): Charter
Oath and, 27; draft constitutions, 157;
government responses, 140, 154,
155–56, 158–59, 163–64; members, 199,
204; newspapers, 157; as opposition
movement, 154; positions, 277n59;
view of emperor, 157–58
freedom of religion. See religious freedom
Fridell, Wilbur M., 141, 182, 183, 185
Fujii Takeshi, 130
Fujiiwa Masanobu, 121, 130–31
Fukuba Bisei: conversion by persuasion
effort, 36; at Department of Divinities, 31, 39, 40, 41, 251n57, 253n102; at Ministry of Divinities, 50; Ministry
of Doctrine and, 111
Fukuchi Ōchi, 149, 157
Fukushima Kanryū, 130
Fukuzawa Yukichi, 95, 107–8, 125–26, 142
funerals: Buddhist, 22–23, 32, 45, 134,
148, 250n42; Christian, 44–45, 135,
163, 170, 178; conducted by doctrinal
instructors, 115, 135, 160; private, 81,
163, 170, 178; state regulation, 112, 148.
See also Shinto funerals
Furukawa Miyuki, 150
Furuya Nisshin, 196
German studies, 159, 163
Germany: Itō Hirobumi in, 164–66;
Iwakura Embassy, 85–86, 261n114;
Japanese students, 79, 85, 164;
Kulturkampf, 57, 85–86, 91, 102
Girard, Prudence S. B., 62
Gneist, Rudolf von, 164, 165
Goble, Jonathan, 74
Gotō Shōjirō, 35, 48, 94, 266n132
grammar of religion. See political
grammar of religion
Granville, Lord, 78
Great Doctrine. See national doctrine
Great Japan Buddhist Alliance (Dai
nihon bukkyōto dōmeikai), 222–23
Index

Great Promulgation Campaign (Taikyō senpu undō): criticism of, 48–49; Edict Proclaiming the Great Teaching, 32–33, 37; end, 140; goals, 37, 38; initial phase, 33; in Nagasaki, 42; Shinto funerals, 42, 43; shrine parishioner registration, 42–43, 254n109; Urakami Christians and, 41–42, 43–46. See also doctrinal instructors; national doctrine

Great Teaching Academy (Daikyōin), 116–17, 120, 127, 131, 133, 147. See also academy system

Great Treason Incident, 235–36

Haga Shōji, 47

Hall of Eight Deities (Hasshinden), 40

Hardacre, Helen, 2, 180

Harris, Townsend, 59, 60, 61

Hatano Seiichi, 237

Hatoyama Kazuo, 202, 279n81

Hayakawa Ryūsuke, 199, 203, 206, 278n66

hearts of the people (jinshin): efforts to capture, 10, 47, 109; foreign missionaries and, 212; instructing, 159

hegemonic power, 53

heresies and evil doctrines, 22, 23, 24, 96

Higashikuze Michitomi, 66, 67, 166

higher education, 2, 155, 215. See also education

Hijikata Hisamoto, 172, 274n26

Hikawa shrine, 28, 250n38

Hirata Atsutane, 39, 40, 101, 253n104

Hirata Nobutane, 40

Hirata school, 39–41, 253n100

Hirata Tōsuke, 232

Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, Prince Charles Anthony of, 164–65

Hokkaido Colonization Commission (Hokkaidō kaitakushi), 158

Honjō Munetake, 150

Hoshi Tōru, 200, 281n108

House of Peers: leaders, 206, 227; lobbying by Buddhist organizations, 222, 224; popular will represented, 194; Religion Bill, 219, 226, 227–29; religious issues and, 286n194; shrine interests and, 199, 205, 207. See also Imperial Diet

Howland, Douglas, 102

Hozumi Yatsuka, 226, 228, 283n138, 288n221

Ichikawa Danjūrō IX, 113

Imari, 74

Imperial Army Ministry, 181, 226, 240

Imperial Army Reserve Corps, 2

Imperial Constitution: budgets, 191–92; democratic character, 241; drafting, 105, 164; German influence, 163–64; powers of Diet, 275–76n38; promulgation ceremonies, 184, 189–90; religious freedom, 1, 183, 184, 186–87, 188–89, 201, 243; religious toleration, 241–42; sacralization of emperor, 185; separation of state and religion, 3, 105, 183, 184, 185–87; significance, 184

Imperial Diet: Buddhist sects and, 184–85, 195, 222–24, 228–29; budgets and, 191–92, 199; clerics excluded from membership, 197, 198; elections, 188, 195, 199–201; first session (1890), 194; forestry bills, 201–2, 208, 275n33, 279n79; House of Representatives, 188, 194, 198, 199–205; House of Representatives Elections Law, 195, 197; national will represented by, 185; Peace Police Bill, 229–30, 289n242; political parties, 185, 194, 200–201, 224, 278n66, 278–79n77, 287n203–4; power, 194, 275–76n38; Religion Bill, 209–10, 212, 214, 215, 219–29, 232–33; Religion Study Group, 224, 287n204; religious issues debated, 184–85, 201–7, 233–34; Religious Organization Law, 241; sectarian interests and, 184–85, 194–95; Shrine Bureau creation, 231; shrine interests and, 173, 194–95, 197, 199–201, 203, 205, 209; shrine priests and, 184–85, 197, 199–201, 203, 205, 231–32; treaty revision debates, 200–201. See also House of Peers imperial institution: authority, 19–21, 24, 26–27, 28, 37, 47, 53–54, 242; classic texts, 189; constitutional government and, 105, 157, 158, 163–64; divine origins, 101; founding, 22; integrative function, 19–20, 26, 28; national doctrine and, 156; politicization, 25–26; priestly character, 20–21, 22, 26–27, 28, 40, 50, 51, 105; relationship to Shinto, 6–7, 109–10, 145, 152–54; relations with people, 27–28, 37; religious nature debated, 157–58; sacralization in constitution, 185; sacred nature, 157, 180; sovereignty, 100, 157; as theocracy, 121–22, 140, 180. See also imperial rituals; Meiji, Emperor; Meiji Restoration imperial institution, separation from religion: consequences, 19–20, 99; in Constitution, 167, 186; criticism of, 173–74; distinction from private belief, 94; by Ministry of Doctrine, 109; motives, 19, 49–50, 54, 242; proponents, 158; proposals, 105–6; Shinto separation and, 162; source of sovereignty, 100. See also state, separation from religion imperialism: Japanese, 210, 240; role of religion, 4–5; Western, 8
Imperial Diet (continued)

Imperial Navy Ministry, 181, 240

imperial palace: Bureau of Rites, 160; deity halls, 50, 51, 153–54, 180, 188, 190, 203, 255n145; rituals performed, 203

Imperial Rescript for Soldiers (Gunjin chokuyu), 98, 101

Imperial Rescript on Education, 3, 28, 141, 156, 174, 179

imperial rituals: ancestor veneration, 40, 105–6, 124–25, 167, 180; Bureau of Rites, 3, 51, 106, 109, 136, 160, 174; Charter Oath Ceremony, 26–27, 66, 250n31–32; emperor’s priestly role, 22, 25, 203; funerals, 250n42; niiname, 28; in palace, 203; political role, 25–26; religious freedom of state officials and, 187; separation from government, 188, 192; separation from religion, 19, 50, 105–6, 111, 124–25, 130, 188, 203–4; at shrines, 40, 190–91. See also saisei itchi; Three Deity Halls

Inoue Enryo, 212

Inoue Kaoru: exile, 252n70; as foreign minister, 167–71; as home minister, 198, 279n83; letters to, 80; national doctrine rejected, 181; negotiations with treaty powers, 168, 278n71; Torio and, 173; Urakami Christians and, 34, 35

Inoue Kowashi: Cabinet Legislation Bureau, 192; on Christianity and international law, 272n6; Constitution of 1889 and, 185, 188; education policy, 155–56, 163; national doctrine rejected, 181; on religion as greatest problem, 3; religious settlement and, 175–76, 178,
Index

192; response to Freedom and People's Rights Movement, 158–59, 162; on secular domain, 184; on separation of religion and politics, 189; Shinto not seen as religion, 126; shrine preservation fund and, 192, 275n30

Institute of Divinities (Jingiin), 191, 274n27

international law, 103, 272n6

Ise, Grand Shrines of: branch shrines, 43; as denominational headquarters, 110; faction associated with, 142; fires, 281n119; head priests, 114, 143, 148; independence, 204; Jingū hōsankai, 231; Mori’s visit, 190; as national shrine, 105; as nonreligious, 161; Pantheon Dispute and, 149–54; rank, 143, 181–82; reforms, 143; state rituals, 51, 52, 105; state support, 181–82, 209, 281n119; talismans, 256n150

Ishikawa Shuntai, 212, 224, 227

Itagaki Taisuke, 207

Italian unification, 87

Itō cabinet: Ancient Shrine and Temple Preservation Law, 205–7; forestry bill, 201–2; Home Ministry, 201; treaty revision negotiations, 200, 278n72

Itō Hirobumi: on anti-Christian groups, 172; Constitution of 1889 and, 167, 183, 185, 186; education policy, 155–56; emperor’s education statement and, 154–55; in Germany and Austria, 164–66; House of Representatives Elections Law, 197; Iwakura Embassy, 72, 74, 77–78, 79, 80, 81; letters to, 131–32; on national doctrine, 16, 155–57, 181, 186; power, 158; religious policies, 172–73, 186; religious settlement and, 141, 171, 193, 274n26; rumored conversion to Christianity, 166, 167; Shimaji and, 123; on state authority, 158; support of ending ban on Christianity, 74, 75; support of religious freedom, 136, 166, 167, 186, 187

Itô Miyoji, 187, 229

Iwakura Embassy: in Britain, 78–79; commonalities seen with Western governments’ treatment of religion, 73, 79, 86, 89–90, 91; discussions on religion, 73–74, 78–79; in Europe, 79–80, 85–86; influence, 55–57, 72, 80–81, 91, 110, 137, 260n105; information gathered, 81–82, 84–88; members, 57, 72, 73; negotiations, 76–78; purpose, 72–73; religious freedom studied by, 73, 81; in United States, 74–78, 82–83

Iwakura Tomomi: Bureau of Shinto Affairs and, 144; debates on religious freedom, 74; Iwakura Embassy, 57, 85–86; Ministry of Doctrine and, 111; negotiations with treaty powers, 69–70, 76, 78, 80; Pantheon Dispute and, 150–51; preparations for embassy, 73

Iwashita Masahira, 153, 199, 277n63

Izumo Grand Shrine, 110, 114, 134, 142, 149–54, 205–6, 268n31

Jaffé, Richard, 31, 113

Jesuits, 85–86. See also Catholic missionaries

Jiji shinpō, 176–77, 213, 219, 220

Jingū hōsankai, 231

Jingū-kyō, 143, 231

Jinmu, Emperor, 22, 23, 27, 190

Kabayama Norisuke, 217

Kaeda Nobuyoshi, 164, 270n88

Kamata Eikichi, 217

Kamei Koremi, 31, 36, 95, 251n57

kami: Charter Oath Ceremony, 26–27; of creation, 39, 116; deity halls, 40, 50, 51, 153–54, 180, 188, 255n145; Hirata school view, 39–40, 253n100; as manifestations of Buddhist deities, 23; reverence for, 148–49; separation from Buddhist deities, 3, 4, 29; tutelary, 40, 44–45, 149; veneration as ancestors, 124

Kanagawa, Treaty of, 59
Index

Karl Alexander August Johann, Grand Duke of Saxony, 165
Katō Genchi, 239
Katō Hiroyuki, 100, 101, 263n24
Ketelaar, James, 53, 117, 118, 120, 126, 130, 132, 238
Kido Takayoshi: attitude toward Christianity, 79; Iwakura Embassy, 57, 72, 73, 76–77, 78–79; political influence, 94; Shimaji and, 48, 79, 123; support of religious freedom, 131–32, 136, 140; Urakami Christians and, 35, 36, 37–38
Kii Toshihide, 207
Kikkawa Chōkichi, 226, 288n220
Kino Kazue, 185
Kinoshita Masahiro, 124–25
Kitagaki Kunimichi, 11, 172, 178
Kitahara Nobutsuna, 204
Kiyūkai (Apprehension Society), 168, 172
Kōgisho assembly, 41, 253–54n106
Kōjiki. See national doctrine
Kokugaku movement: criticism of, 101; doctrinal instructors, 117; in education system, 155; Hirata school, 39–41, 253n100; members of government, 31, 73, 94; national doctrine proposed, 35; Shinto funerals and, 32; Tsuwano faction, 39. See also “restored” Shinto kokutai (national polity): Aizawa on, 4, 20, 21, 22, 33; Buddhist competition, 23; external pressures and, 4–5; imagining, 24; relationship to religions, 50, 98–100, 101, 124–25, 130; renewal, 23; Shinto and, 148–49; supporters in Diet, 199
Kōmei, Emperor, 28–29
Komuro Shigehiro, 204, 205
Konoe Atsumaro, 227
Kōtoku Shūsui, 235–36
Kozaki Hiromichi, 221, 290n5
Kuga Katsunari, 190, 195, 217, 283–84n147, 286n178
Kulturkampf, 57, 85–86, 91, 102
Kume Kunitake: essay on Shinto, 239, 278n69, 291n21; Iwakura Embassy, 73, 74, 75, 82, 86–88; on religion and superstition, 93; Shinto not seen as religion, 126
Kunisada Masafumi, 198
Kuroda Kiyotaka, 131, 158
Kuroda Kiyotsuna, 111
Kuroda Nagashige, 228
Kusumoto Masatada, 44–45
Kyōgi shinbun, 125
Kyoto prefectural government, 37, 126–27
landholdings, of temples and shrines, 30, 113–14, 192–93, 201–2, 275n33, 288n212
Landis, H. M., 221
late-Tokugawa Japan. See Tokugawa era laws: Civil Code, 208–9, 220; on religion boundaries, 185; Western, on religion, 105. See also Imperial Diet; international law Legal Codes Research Committee (Hōten chōsakai), 215, 216, 283nn138–39 legal systems. See constitutions legal theory, European, 103–4 loyalty, 26, 37, 45–46. See also nationalism
Maejima Hisoka, 95
Marumaru shinbun, 166
Maruyama Sakura, 164, 199, 206, 270n88, 276n39, 277n63, 278n66
Matsukata Masayoshi: cabinet, 206–7; as finance minister, 227; as home minister, 151, 152, 159–60; letters to, 164–65, 172; in Nagasaki, 34; national doctrine rejected, 181
Matsuoka Yasutake, 226–27, 228, 288n220
Mayo, Marlene J., 76
mediums. See popular religion
Meiji, Emperor: advisers, 154–55, 156; anniversary of father’s death, 28–29;
Charter Oath Ceremony, 26–27, 66; Christian conversion rumors, 166; Crisis of 1881 and, 158; Great Promulgation Campaign, 32–33, 38; policy involvement, 154; progresses, 27–28, 250n40; promulgation of constitution, 189–90; rituals, 26–27, 28–29; statement on education, 154–55. See also imperial institution

Meiji government: administration, 25, 118, 185; Buddhist sects and, 47–48; civil war, 25, 27, 30, 66; consolidation of power, 72, 118; Crisis of 1881, 158–59, 162; factions, 25, 48, 94; hegemonic authority, 53; legitimacy, 25, 199, 200; relations with Diet, 199; relations with Western powers, 59, 66, 69–72; religious policies, 1–2, 30; scandals, 158; three council structure, 255n137; underground Christians and, 34–35, 36–38. See also Council of State; Council of the Left; Imperial Constitution; Iwakura Embassy; Privy Council; religious settlement; state, Japanese; and specific ministries and bureaus

Meiji nippo, 179

Meiji Restoration: declaration, 18, 25; motives, 20, 33; purity, 19, 28, 29, 33; religious issues, 242–43; social impact, 23–24

Meiji Settlement, 182

Meiroku Society (Meirokusha): discussions of religion, 94, 95–97, 102, 105, 106, 108, 131, 137; members, 95, 128, 262n7

Meiroku zasshi (Meiroku Journal), 94, 95, 97–102, 103, 262n6

memorial system (kenpaku seido), 194

Mendelssohn, Moses, Jerusalem, or, On Religious Power and Judaism, 9

military: conscription law, 220, 226, 228; Imperial Army Ministry, 181, 226, 240; Imperial Army Reserve Corps, 2; war casualties, 240; Yasukuni shrine and, 2, 240–41

Ministry of Divinities (Jingishō), 50–51, 52, 109, 255n144, 274n27

Ministry of Education: budgets, 114–15; doctrinal instructor system and, 110–11; private school regulation, 216–17, 284n155, 284nn148–49; on secular character of Yasukuni shrine, 2, 5

Ministry of Justice, 74

minken movement. See Freedom and People’s Rights Movement

Minobe Tatsukichi, 241–42

missionaries: increased activity, 210–12, 216; in Nagasaki, 64; Protestant, 73, 74, 221; schools, 195, 210, 212, 216, 276n45, 284n154; in treaty ports, 61–63, 64, 135; violence against, 168. See also Catholic missionaries; Christianity

Missionary Office: abolition, 18, 51; criticism of, 48; establishment, 38, 66; Nagasaki activities, 41–43; “A Summary of the Great Doctrine,” 46, 47; theological debates, 39, 40–41, 47, 149; Urakami Christians and, 41–42, 43–46. See also Great Promulgation Campaign

Mito domain, 20, 22, 199

Mito Learning (Mitogaku), 20, 199, 264n55
Index

Mitsugen kyōhō, 224
Mitsukuri Shūhei, 95
Miura Yasushi, 166
mixed residence: Buddhist responses, 212–14; education and, 210, 211, 283n143; effects, 200, 210–12, 229–30; legal changes, 207, 214; preparations, 212, 283n136; treaty revisions, 200, 201, 278n72
Miyachi Masato, 50, 118
Miyaji Izuo, 239–40
Miyoshi Taizō, 226
Montblanc, Charles de, 72 morality: Confucian, 106, 156; in government, 106–7
Mori Arinori: assassination, 190, 275n30; House of Representatives Elections Law, 197; Iwakura Embassy, 82; Meioku Society, 94, 96, 103, 262n7; “Religious Freedom in Japan: A Memorial and Draft Charter,” 83–84; religious neutrality advocated, 82; in United States, 76, 82, 83; Vattel translation, 103–4
Mormons, 75
Motoda Nagazane: “Concerning National Doctrine” (“Kokkyōron”), 173; death, 275n39; essays on religion, 173–74; imperial statement on education, 154–55; Kyōikugi-fugi, 156; on moral education, 106; on national doctrine, 16; Shinto not seen as religion, 126, 190–91; support of imperial institution, 158; as tutor of emperor, 274n25
Motoori Norinaga, 101
Murakami Shigeyoshi, 5
Murata Mukujun, 196
Mutsu Munemitsu, 126, 166, 167, 170, 200
Myōdō kyōkai (Society for Illuminating the Way), 168, 172–73

Nabeshima Naohiro, 67
Nagasaki: anti-Christian groups, 172; Catholic Church, 33, 34, 63; executions of Christians, 63; foreign representatives, 34, 68; missionaries, 64; shrine parishioner registration, 42–43. See also treaty ports; Urakami Christians
Nakamura Kei, 83
Nakanishi Ushirō, 212
Nakano Takeaki, 44, 45, 73
national doctrine (kokkyō): criticism of, 48, 83; development, 37–40, 46–47, 71; emperor’s role, 39, 46–47, 156; guidance for regional officials, 46–47; limitations, 132; meanings, 16; Motoda on, 156, 173, 174; as nonsecular, 109; proposal, 35; rejection, 155–57, 181, 186; relationship to Shinto, 39, 109–10; similarities to Christianity, 38–39, 45–46
national identity, 9, 24
nationalism, religious, 222–23
national polity. See kokutai
national religions: Buddhism as, 102, 104, 138, 160, 164, 165, 186, 214, 263n34; Christianity as, 104–5; established churches, 87, 102–3, 170, 186, 225, 272n5; Shinto as, 164, 186; Vattel on, 103–4
National Shinto Priest Conference, 194–95, 199
National Shrine Priests Association (Zenkoku shinshokukai), 207–8, 281n109, 289n247
native religion, 89. See also kami; popular religion; Shinto nativists. See Kokugaku movement
Negishi Takeka, 206
Newman, John Henry, 10
new religions, 117, 143–44, 147, 162, 268n19
newspapers. See press
New York Herald, 166
New York Times, 68–69, 81
Nihon kokkyō daidōsha (Society of the Great Way of the Great Japanese National Teaching), 173
Nihon shoki, 20, 36, 45
niiname ritual, 28, 250n41

Nakamura Kei, 83
Nakanishi Ushirō, 212
Nakano Takeaki, 44, 45, 73
national doctrine (kokkyō): criticism of, 48, 83; development, 37–40, 46–47, 71; emperor’s role, 39, 46–47, 156; guidance for regional officials, 46–47; limitations, 132; meanings, 16; Motoda on, 156, 173, 174; as nonsecular, 109; proposal, 35; rejection, 155–57, 181, 186; relationship to Shinto, 39, 109–10; similarities to Christianity, 38–39, 45–46
national identity, 9, 24
nationalism, religious, 222–23
national polity. See kokutai
national religions: Buddhism as, 102, 104, 138, 160, 164, 165, 186, 214, 263n34; Christianity as, 104–5; established churches, 87, 102–3, 170, 186, 225, 272n5; Shinto as, 164, 186; Vattel on, 103–4
National Shinto Priest Conference, 194–95, 199
National Shrine Priests Association (Zenkoku shinshokukai), 207–8, 281n109, 289n247
native religion, 89. See also kami; popular religion; Shinto nativists. See Kokugaku movement
Negishi Takeka, 206
Newman, John Henry, 10
new religions, 117, 143–44, 147, 162, 268n19
newspapers. See press
New York Herald, 166
New York Times, 68–69, 81
Nihon kokkyō daidōsha (Society of the Great Way of the Great Japanese National Teaching), 173
Nihon shoki, 20, 36, 45
niiname ritual, 28, 250n41
Index

Nikolai (missionary), 135
Nishi Amane, 97–102, 103, 105, 108
Nishikawa Yoshisuke, 42–43
Nishimura Shigeki, 107
Nishino Buntarō, 190
Normanton Incident, 278n71

Ochiai Naoaki, 150
Ōhara Shigetomi, 111
Okada Ryōhei, 217, 284n155
Okamoto Ryūnosuke, 222
Okamura Teijirō, 276n44
Ōkubo Toshimichi, 27, 35, 57, 72, 77–78, 94, 158
Ōkuma Shigenobu, 34, 35, 73, 158, 163, 199, 202, 207
Ōkuninushi-no-kami, 149, 150, 151, 153–54, 253n100
Ōkuni Takamasa, 31, 35–36, 38, 45
Ono Nobuzane, 38–39, 42, 46, 254n118
Orthodox Christians, 87–88. See also Russian Orthodox Church
Osaka, 27
Osaka Mainichi, 220
Ōtani Kōei, 227
Ōtori Sessō, 144, 145, 146–47, 267–68n8
Ōtsu Juńichirō: calls for revival of Department of Divinities, 199–200, 203; draft memorial on religion, 203–4; in Imperial Diet, 201, 277–286n64; party membership, 278n66; on Shrine Bureau, 231, 281n110, 289n247
Ōuchi Seiran, 136
Outrey, Maxime, 69, 70
Ozaki Saburō, 166–67, 227–28

Pantheon Dispute (Saijin ronsō), 114, 140, 142, 149–54, 163
Parkes, Harry S., 35, 68, 69–70, 71, 259n59
Peace Police Bill (Chian keisatsu hōan), 229–30, 289n242
Perry, Matthew, 55, 58–59, 74
Petitjean, Bernard T., 63, 65, 258n41
Pius IX, Pope, 63
police bill. See Peace Police Bill political grammar of religion: Buddhism and, 210, 224; conservative use of, 173–74; as constraint, 240; development, 1–2, 10–11; external pressures and, 7–8, 19; institutionalization, 233; Ministry of Doctrine and, 137–38; private belief and, 232; in religious settlement, 180; Shinto and, 190, 209; state religions and, 242; in West, 8–9 political parties: Conservative Impartial, 173; Constitutional Government, 224, 287n203; Constitutional Reform, 199, 202, 204, 278n66; in Imperial Diet, 185, 194, 200–201, 224, 278n66, 278–79n77, 287n203–4 popular religion: marginalization, 96; merging with Shinto, 147; public practices, 96, 99–100, 121, 147; as superstition, 96, 99–100, 106, 121 prayer healing. See popular religion press: censorship, 157–58, 166; debates on religious nature of emperor, 157–58; Freedom and People’s Rights Movement newspapers, 157; government-controlled, 159; Pantheon Dispute coverage, 149; political coverage, 194; pro-government, 149, 157; Religion Bill coverage, 220; religious, 125; religious settlement and, 179; secular, 196, 198, 218, 223, 277n15; Western, 68–69. See also Yomiuri shinbun priests. See Buddhist clerics; shrine priests prison chaplains, 282n126
private belief: in Christianity, 8, 56, 84; as normative definition of religion, 8, 56, 104, 137; religious toleration and, 9; separation from politics, 8–9, 16–17, 238; separation from public practices, 138; separation from state, 94, 96; validation, 239. See also religious freedom Private School Ordinance (Shigakkōrei), 216, 218, 221, 283–84 nn147–49
Privy Council (Sōmitsuin), 166, 186, 187, 188, 191, 197 property rights, 193, 201–2, 279 n79
Protestant Christianity: Anglican Church, 79, 170, 256 n7; compared to Confucianism, 88; economic development and, 87–88; influence on Japanese views of religion, 56; pietistic, 56; predicted rise in Japan, 97, 171, 172; in Prussia, 85; Religion Bill and, 221; seen as normative, 8, 56, 96, 104; seen as privileged, 195–96. See also Christianity Protestants: anti-Catholicism, 57, 103–4; Japanese leaders, 221; missionaries, 73, 74, 221; prison chaplains, 282 n126
Prussia, 69, 85, 163. See also Germany public education. See education “quasi-religions” (ruiji shūkyō), 4 racial differences, religion and, 88 rational enlightenment, 96, 97–98
Reichikai zasshi, 198
religion: ambivalence of category, 241; authenticity, 56; construction, 235–37, 242; distinction from superstition, 93, 94; functional understanding, 82, 88, 94, 96–97, 126, 142; generic concept, 2, 17, 88, 91–92, 96, 237; as greatest problem, 3, 140–41, 242, 243; Japanese translations of concept, 15–17; modernization and, 242, 243–44; national identity and, 9; as separate domain, 2, 54, 129, 130, 203, 216; separation from politics, 49–50, 189; shūkyō term, 3, 7–8, 58, 232, 261–62 n1; social function, 75, 79, 86, 132, 189, 235–36; as social institution, 126–27; state control, 99, 164; state formation and, 5; state regulation of public practices, 99–100, 102, 103, 108, 138; in West, 8–11, 57, 58, 72, 85–87. See also private belief; state, separation from religion; subjectified religion Religion Bureau (Shūkyō kyoku), 136, 183, 219, 231, 233 religions: autonomy, 202–3; competition among, 5, 97, 179, 186, 187–88, 189, 200, 212–13, 237; conflicts among, 141, 171–73, 229–30; as foreign influences, 89–90, 91, 103–4, 168, 176; functional equivalence, 237; official recognition, 196–97; sectarian affiliations, 31–32, 46; self-regulation, 177; uniform regulatory treatment, 169–71, 212, 225, 226, 228, 230, 235–37, 238, 241. See also Buddhism; Christianity; national religions; new religions; Shinto religious freedom: administration, 186–88; arguments for gradual transition, 74; Christianity excluded, 134–35; conditional, 186–87; diplomatic pressure to adopt, 55–56, 59–60, 61, 64, 69–71, 75, 76–78, 180; distinction from toleration, 87, 102–3, 175; of doctrinal instructors, 133–34; education and, 216–17; of foreigners in Japan, 59, 60, 216–17; in Imperial Constitution, 1, 183, 184, 186–87, 188–89, 201, 243; Iwakura Embassy study of, 73, 81; laws, 105; modern discourse, 130–31; Mori’s memorial on, 83–84; public education and, 57; state support of shrines and, 241–42; supporters in Japan, 98, 99, 131–32, 135, 136, 166, 169–70; violations seen, 238; in West, 57, 61, 71, 72, 75, 80, 87, 105, 130–31
Religious Organization Law (Shūkyō dantai hō), 241 religious plurality, 9–10, 17, 48, 49, 50, 53, 83–84, 127 religious settlement (shūkyō shobun): abolition of doctrinal instructor system, 171, 175, 177, 182; background, 180–81; goals, 177, 179; Imperial Constitution and, 183, 184, 185–88, 193, 196; legacy, 243–44; need for, 171; negotiations, 175; order, 177–81; pursuit of, 11, 141; reforms proposed, 35–36, 39; responses, 179; separation of religion and politics, 141; Shinto separation order (1882), 161–63, 167, 180–81, 182, 189. See also Bureau of Shinto Affairs; kami; State Shinto religious studies, 237–38, 239–40, 291n10 religious tolerance: of Christianity, 53; distinction from freedom, 87, 102–3, 175; with state religions, 87, 186; supporters in Japan, 138, 175; in West, 9, 87, 90. See also established churches “restored” Shinto, 31, 32, 37, 40, 41, 43, 52
Revised Conscription Ordinance, 220, 226, 228
Revised Treaty Preparation Committee, 214
Rice Riots (1918), 235, 236
Rikugō zasshi, 216, 284n154 rituals: civic, 240–41; memorial, 28–29, 240–41, 250n42; separation from doctrine, 19, 32, 47–53, 109, 111, 191. See also imperial rituals; state rituals Roches, Leon, 64–65
Roman Catholic Church. See Catholic Church
Roman Catholic Relief Act, 256n5
Russia, 21
Russian Orthodox Church, 21, 87, 135. See also Christianity Russo-Japanese War, 235, 240, 290n5
sacralization of emperor, 185
Saigō Takamori, 94
Saigō Tsugumichi, 208, 213, 214–15, 230, 274n26, 283n138
Sain. See Council of the Left saisei itchi (unity of rite and rule): Aizawa on, 4, 20–21, 22; ancient roots, 22; disputes, 40; goals, 49; Great Promulgation Campaign, 32–33, 37, 38; limitations, 188; meanings, 25; Meiji policies, 18, 24, 25–32, 33, 203; national identity and, 24; obstacles, 22; separation of ritual and doctrine, 32, 47–53; similarity to Christian conversion, 19, 21; supporters in Diet, 199
Sakamoto Koremaru, 120, 239
Sakatani Shiroshi, 106–7
Sakurai Yoshikata, 151–52, 153, 160
Sanjō Sanetomi: Charter Oath Ceremony, 26, 250n31; letters to, 85–86; at Ministry of Divinities, 51, 255n144; Mori’s memorial to, 83–84; negotiations with treaty powers, 69–70; Pantheon Dispute and, 153; Shinto regulation and, 160; Urakami Christians and, 35
Sanyūtei Enchō, 113
Sasaki Takayuki: constitutional debates, 187; debates on ending ban on Christianity, 74–75; memorial on Institute of Divinities, 191, 192, 274n27; in Nagasaki, 34; on religion, 75; Shinto not seen as religion, 126, 190–91; as tutor to imperial family, 274n25, 276n39
Satow, Ernest, 67–68
Satsuma Rebellion, 94, 140
Sawa Nobuyoshi, 34–35, 36, 68, 69–70, 71, 252n70 scientists, 75, 165
sectarian affiliations: inspection of, 31–32; regulation, 29; separation from political loyalty, 46 sects. See Buddhist sects; Shinto sects “sect Shinto” (kyōha shintō), 147 secularism: in Japan, 1, 3, 233, 241, 243; in United States, 75
Sein. See Central Council
Seitaisho constitution, 27
Senge Takatomi: Bureau of Shinto Affairs and, 146, 154; at Izumo Ōyashiro church, 162; Pantheon Dispute and, 149, 150, 153, 268n31; Religion Bill and, 229; support of preservation funds, 205–6
Seventeen Themes (Jūnana kendai), 120, 134
Seward, William H., 67, 69
Shiba Junrokurō, 225, 228
Shigakai Takamaro, 130
Shimaji Mokurai: clerics and, 198; criticism of Ministry of Doctrine, 95, 110, 123–25, 127–28, 138; European travels, 123; Kido and, 48, 79, 123; Meiji government and, 48, 123; Meiroku Journal, 95; Ministry of Doctrine creation and, 48, 122–23; on religion and politics, 123, 126–31; subjectification of religion, 95, 110, 122, 129, 130, 132, 140; withdrawal from academy system, 122, 127, 131
Shimazaki Tōson, Before the Dawn, 6
Shimazono Susumu, 240
Shimizu Tōru, 280n104, 285n166
Shingon sect, 113–14, 212–13, 224
Shin sect (Shinshū): Aizawa’s criticism of, 23; autonomy, 122, 138; clerics, 131; criticism of Ministry of Doctrine, 95, 110, 121–22; decline narrative, 130; doctrinal instructors, 113; financial support, 114, 147; Honganji faction, 30, 198; Nishi-Honganji branch, 48, 122, 222, 227; Ōtani branch, 212, 223–24, 227, 236–37; political influence, 122; prison chaplains, 282n126; rebellions, 50, 251n52; relations with government, 30; shinzoku nitai doctrine, 129–30; in Tokugawa era, 130; view of Shinto as religion, 159–60; withdrawal from academy system, 122, 127, 131, 133
Shinto: academy system and, 116–22; afterlife theology, 120; Christians converted to, 44–45; competition with Buddhism, 110, 125, 134; confraternities, 143, 147, 149, 162; institutional structure, 114, 142, 143; liminal position, 145–46; Ministry of Doctrine and, 95, 110, 111, 124; as national religion, 164, 186; nonreligious character, 122, 123, 125–26, 127, 128, 129, 130–31, 138, 142, 149, 160–63, 233, 266n128; Pantheon Dispute, 114, 140, 142, 149–54, 163; proselytizing, 146, 149, 153; relationship to imperial institution, 6–7, 109–10, 145, 152–54; relationship to state, 144, 145–46, 177, 178; as religion, 7, 110, 117, 121–22, 144, 145, 159–60, 239–40; religious settlement and, 177, 178; “restored,” 31, 32, 37, 40, 41, 43, 52; sacred and simple, 36; separation from Buddhism, 19, 29–32, 45, 128; separation from state, 160; separation of religious from nonreligious, 7, 37, 141; separation order (1882), 161–63, 167, 180–81, 182, 189; shrine reforms (1886), 181–82, 191; state regulation, 141, 151, 154, 159–65, 181; as state religion, 18, 19, 31, 32, 241–42; as suprareligious, 146, 152–53, 154. See also State Shinto Shinto funerals: for Christians, 44–45; conducted by doctrinal instructors, 148, 160; defilement taboos and, 43, 148, 270n77; income from, 161; legalization, 148; in Nagasaki, 43; of priests, 32, 148; promoting, 115, 147–48; restrictions, 32
Shinto partisans: academy system and, 116, 117, 120, 147; coalition, 262n4; divisions among, 161; doctrinal instructor system and, 115; in Ministry of Doctrine, 52, 95, 109–10, 111, 131; redefinition of Shinto, 142. See also Pantheon Dispute Shinto sects: churches, 110, 144, 148, 153, 161–62, 220, 225; clerics, 141, 189; independence, 162; as religion, 141;
Religion Bill and, 221; superintendents, 177, 178, 197, 201
Shinto shrines. See shrines
Shishido Tamaki, 111, 131, 267n136
Shrine Bureau (Jinja kyoku): effects of creation, 231–32; establishment, 3, 6, 136, 183, 219, 221, 231; proposal, 207–8, 209, 289n247; rationale, 290n248, 290n250
Shrine and Temple Bureau (Shaji kyoku): establishment, 136; Pantheon Dispute and, 151; proposed separation, 207–8, 221; regulations, 160, 170; Religion Bill and, 227, 228; sections, 218–19, 285n165; separation, 231, 233; shrine priests and, 198; Sōtō sect dispute and, 279n83 shrine parishioner registration (ujiko shirabe), 42–43, 254n109 Shrine priests: appointments, 51, 115; defilement taboos, 43, 148, 270n77; dissociating from doctrinal instructors, 160–61, 162, 189; financial support, 115, 146–47, 161, 270n76; freedom, 136; funerals, 32, 43, 115, 147–48, 161, 270n77; Ministry of Doctrine regulation, 112; national movement, 197; political activity, 184–85, 194–95, 197–98, 201, 229–30; political influence, 197–98, 199–201, 203, 205, 207–8, 231–32, 278n68; ranks, 115; relationship to state, 4, 6, 52–53, 141, 144, 174–75, 177; roles, 138–39; separation from doctrinal instructors, 3, 144, 146; as state officials, 197; state regulation, 52–53, 197, 198; state rituals, 141, 144, 145; superintendents, 114, 197, 201; victimization experiences, 238–39. See also doctrinal instructors
Shrine Priest Service Regulations, 197
shrines: academy system and, 117; civic, 161; as denominational headquarters, 110; disassociation from Buddhist temples, 29; equivalent treatment to temples, 193, 194, 202; financial support, 181–82, 191–93; imperial, 51–52, 115, 144, 161, 181–82, 191; Imperial Diet and, 173, 194–95, 197, 199–201, 203, 205; imperial rituals, 40, 190–91; independence, 4, 204; landholdings, 30, 201–2, 275n33; legal status, 208–9, 218, 220; mergers, 239, 291n18; Ministry of Doctrine regulation, 111–12; national, 51, 105, 115, 144; as nonreligious, 128, 141, 190–91, 233, 239; preservation of historical buildings, 193, 201–2, 205–7, 274–75n29, 280n96, 280n101; ranking, 51–52, 115, 143, 161, 181, 270n76; reforms, 181–82, 191; relationship to imperial institution, 6–7, 11, 190–91; relationship to state, 4, 5–7, 51–53; religious elements, 231, 239–40; separation from religion, 190, 194, 208, 231, 239; state regulation, 136, 174–75, 190–91, 194, 231–32; state rituals, 141, 162–63, 239, 276n41; survey, 115. See also Ise Grand Shrines of; Izumo Grand Shrine; shrine priests; state rituals; Yasukuni shrine shrines, state support: debates on, 280–81n105; decline in, 115; increases, 183–84, 209, 233, 238–39; preservation funds, 181, 191–93, 205–6, 219, 280–81n105; rationale, 238–39; reforms, 181–82; in twentieth century, 238, 241–42, 243, 291n16 shrine Shinto (jinja shintō), 147, 183, 231–32, 239, 241–42. See also State Shinto Siebold, Phillip Franz von, 58
Sino-French War, 169
Sino-Japanese War, 201
Smith, Helmut Walser, 85
social pluralism and cognitive relativism, 185–86, 193, 215, 232
Soejima Taneomi, 143
Soga Sukenori, 226, 228, 288n220
Sophia University, 2
Sōtō sect, 114, 202, 279n83
sovereignty, 100, 104, 130, 157
Spencer, Herbert, 212–13
state, Japanese: authority, 53, 100–101, 158; imperial institution's position, 18–19, 24, 105; secular character, 1, 3, 233, 241, 243; semicolonial relationship with treaty powers, 57, 104; sovereignty limited, 104; of state, 100–101; unity, 24. See also Imperial Constitution; Meiji government; Tokugawa government state, separation from religion: achievement, 1, 17; from Buddhism, 29–32; five separations, 3–4, 15; in Imperial Constitution, 3, 105, 183, 184, 185–87; Meiroku Society members on, 96–100; in monarchies, 105; motives, 3; Shimaji on, 123–25, 126–27, 128–31; in West, 8–10, 82. See also imperial institution, separation from religion; religious settlement state formation, 5
state rituals: commemoration of war dead, 2, 5, 240–41; emperor's role, 203; at Ise, 51, 52, 105; as nonreligious, 130, 160, 276n41; priests conducting, 141, 144, 145; at shrines, 141, 162–63, 239, 276n41. See also imperial rituals State Shinto (Kokka shintō), 5–7, 183, 238–39, 240–41. See also Yasukuni shrine Stein, Lorenz von, 164, 270n88
subjectified religion: in Constitution, 186, 188–89; contract, 188–89, 198, 236; political activity of clerics and, 198; Shimaji on, 95, 110, 122, 129, 130, 132, 140; Shinto sects as, 162
"A Summary of the Great Doctrine" ("Taikyō yōshi"), 46, 47 superstition, 93, 94, 96, 99–100, 106, 121
Taiyō, 206, 210, 220, 231, 281n112, 282n125, 288n217
Takahito, Prince, 153
Tanaka Fujimaro, 74, 82, 84–85, 95
Tanaka Yoritsune, 143, 146, 148–49, 154
Tanigawa Yutaka, 16
Tani Tateki, 172–73, 224, 225
Temple Bureau (Jinryō), 122, 160
Temple Registry System, 22, 29, 31–32, 33, 34, 42 temples. See Buddhist temples Terashima Munenori, 69–70, 71, 77–78, 154, 259n66
theocracy, 98–99, 101, 121–22, 140–41, 180
Thompson, Joseph Parrish, 102
Three Deity Halls, 51, 153–54, 180, 188, 190, 255n145
Three Standards of Instruction (Sanjō no kyōsoku), 118, 119, 120, 121, 123–24, 125, 127, 133–34, 136
Times of London, 89–90
Tokonami Takejirō, 235, 236–37
Tokyo Nagatane: Bureau of Shinto Affairs and, 143, 146; at Department of Divinities, 38, 40–41; on doctrinal instructors, 115; national doctrine and, 39; Pantheon Dispute and, 150, 153; theological disputes, 40–41
Tokugawa era: Christian converts, 33–34, 63–66; Shin sect, 130
Tokugawa government: ban on Christianity, 31–32, 58–59, 62–65, 258n45; Buddhist reforms, 22, 29; foreign threats, 20, 21–22; relations with Western powers, 20, 58–63, 64–65; temple registration system, 31–32, 33, 34, 36
Tokugawa Yoshinobu, 64, 258n45
Tokyo, emperor's journey to, 27–28
Tokyo Nichinichi shinbun, 149, 157–58
Tokyo-Yohokama Mainichi shinbun, 157, 158
Torio Koyata, 172–73, 187, 188
Treaty of Amity and Commerce (1858), 58, 60, 76–78
Treaty of Kanagawa, 59
treaty ports: churches, 62, 63; diplomatic corps, 35, 61–63, 67–68; establishment, 60; foreigners restricted to, 77; foreign residents, 35,
Index

61–62, 257n23; missionaries, 61–63, 64, 135; religious freedom, 60; shrine parishioner registration, 42–43, 254n109; Western merchants, 61–62.

See also Nagasaki; Yokohama treaty powers: commercial interests, 60–61, 76; economic dependence on, 19; extraterritorial jurisdiction, 60, 77, 78, 278n72; imperialism, 8; power of religious groups, 80; pressure for religious freedom in Japan, 55–56, 67; pressure on Japan to adopt religious freedom, 55–56, 59–60, 61, 64, 69–71, 75, 76–78, 180; relationship with Japanese government, 57, 104, 168; semicolonial relationship with Japan, 57, 104; tension between advocacy of religious freedom and Christian civilization, 58. See also unequal treaties; and individual nations treaty revision negotiations: with Britain, 200, 201, 278n71; domestic politics and, 167–68, 200–201, 243; Iwakura Embassy, 76–78; Iwakura Embassy and, 72–73, 75; mixed residence allowed, 200, 201, 278n72; religious issues, 90–91, 104; religious liberty issue, 76–78. See also mixed residence; unequal treaties Tsuda Mamichi, 97, 103, 105–6
Tsuzuki Keiroku, 226, 228, 288n223

Uchimura Kanzō, 276n44
unequal treaties: acceptance by Meiji government, 66; most favored nation clause, 78; power relations, 57, 60–61; religious issues, 8, 19, 58, 60; signing of, 20. See also treaty revision negotiations United States: consuls, 59, 60, 61; education, 84–85; Iwakura Embassy, 74–78, 82–83; Japanese students, 82; ministers in Japan, 67, 69, 71; Perry’s negotiations with Japan, 58–59; public education, 57; religions, 75, 87; religious freedom, 71, 75, 87, 105; State Department, 67, 76–77, 78; treaties with Japan, 58, 59–60, 61, 76–78. See also treaty powers unity of rite and rule. See saisei itchi Urakami (village), 43
Urakami Christians: diplomatic negotiations on, 61, 64, 66; exiled, 37–38, 43–46, 56, 68–70, 71, 76–77, 80, 82, 254n120, 255n128, 258n44, 260n107; faith recanted by, 65, 80, 255n128; foreign support, 44, 68–70, 71, 76–77; identification to Catholic priest in Nagasaki, 33, 63; imprisoned and tortured, 33, 35, 64, 65; national loyalty, 45–46; prosecutions, 36, 63–64, 65–66, 69, 70, 257–58n35; reconversion efforts, 41–42, 44–46, 66; released from exile, 80, 260n107; underground, 33–34
Urakami Incident, 61, 63–66, 71–72, 76–77, 90, 168–69
van Valkenburgh, Robert, 67
Vattel, Emmerich de, 103–4, 130
Veer, Peter van der, 4–5
Verbeck, Guido, 73, 80–81
Victoria, Queen, 256n7
Vietnam (Annam), 64, 169, 258n38
Viswanathan, Gauri, 9, 49, 56

Western nations: Christianity, 56, 85–87, 91, 165, 169; imperialism, 8; monarchies, 105, 157, 158, 163; religious freedom, 57, 61, 71, 72, 75, 80, 87, 105, 130–31. See also Europe; Iwakura Embassy; treaty powers; and individual nations
Wilhelm, Kaiser, 166

Yamada Akiyoshi, 160–61, 190–91, 273n15, 276n39
Yamagata Aritomo: Buddhist leaders and, 196–97; cabinet, 191–93, 208, 215, 219, 227; Chōshū clique, 222; as home minister, 175, 177, 181; letters to, 167, Yamagata Aritomo (continued) 172–73; national doctrine rejected, 181; as prime minister, 174, 191–93, 207–8; Religion Bill, 219–20, 227–29, 283n138; religious settlement and, 141, 177–79, 180, 181, 193; Shinto and, 274n26; Torio and, 173

Yamaguchi Naoyoshi, 73, 74

Yamaoka Tesshū, 172

Yamazaki Minako, 77–78

Yanagihara Maemitsu, 274n26

Yasukuni shrine, 2, 5, 51, 181, 240–41, 292n27

Yokohama: Christians, 135; churches, 62; diplomatic conference, 69–70, 71; missionaries, 62, 135, 257n28; as treaty port, 60. See also treaty ports

Yokohama Incident, 62–63

Yokoi Shōnan, 34

Yomiuri shinbun, 131, 132–33, 135, 196, 198, 219, 267n149

Yorozu chōhō, 220, 223, 224

Yoshii Tomozane, 274n26, 276n39

Young, Brigham, 75

Yuasa Jirō, 195, 276n47