Figures and Tables

Following part 1

Figures

1 Mirror with horses and chariots. Yamaguchi collection. 162
2 Mirror with Wu Zixu, a deity, a dragon, and a tiger. Kawai collection. 163
3 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, the Loyal Minister. British Museum. 164
4 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, by Master Zou. Private Collection (1). 164
5 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, by Master Zhou. Private Collection (2). 165
6 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, attributed to Master Zhou. Private Collection (3). 165
7 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu. Private Collection (4). 166
8 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu. Private Collection (5). 166
9 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, a dragon and a tiger. Private Collection (6). 167
10 Mirror with figures from the story of Wu Zixu, a dragon and a tiger. Private Collection (7). 167
11 Mirror with Wu Zixu, a deity, a dragon, and a tiger. Private Collection (8). 168
12 Mirror with Wu Zixu, a king, a Bixie, and another mythical animal. Private Collection (9). 168
13 Mirror with Deities and Kings. The Cleveland Museum of Art. 169
Figures and Tables

Tables

1. The king-lists of Wu 23
2. Types of bronze inscriptions from the kingdom of Wu 130
3. Identity of the makers of Wu bronzes 131
4. Literary works of the 1767 Huqiushan zhi by dynasty 253
5. Types of authors of the 1767 Huqiushan zhi by dynasty 255