Index

Abductions, 32–33, 108, 129–30
Abyss, 39, 210
Adorno, Theodor, 200
Agamben, Giorgio, 86, 135
Agriculture, 45, 55–60, 154, 155.
   See also Seongjangui bom
Albright, Madeleine, 133
Ancestors, 24, 191
Anthropo-ization, 4–5, 8
Anthropology: British Social, 5, 10; Culture and Personality School, 9–11; “culture at a distance” approach, 10–11, 208–9; enemy studies, 6, 8, 10–11, 194; study of “primitive” peoples, 4–6. See also
   Ethnographic fieldwork
Arendt, Hannah, 38, 198
Arirang mass games, 22
Augustine, Saint, Confessions, 143

Bataille, Georges, 20, 61, 77
Bateson, Gregory, 10
Benedict, Ruth, 6, 8, 10–11, 13, 194
Berlin, Isaiah, 83–84
Binnaneun jauk (Brilliant Footsteps), 44
Biopolitics, 188
Bipangwa jagibipan (criticism and self-criticism), 142, 184
Boas, Franz, 9–10
Bodies: infatuation symptoms, 76–77; of Kim Il Sung, on display, 21–22, 34, 35–36, 191; of leaders, on display, 34–36; of monarchs, 34, 35, 80; mummification, 35; souls and, 34–35
Bongwan (lineages), 192
Britain, see United Kingdom
British Social Anthropology, 5, 10
Buddhism, Tibetan, 34
Bultaneun bam (Burning Night; Li Jong-Ryeol), 87–91, 105
Bush administration, 137, 202–3
“Byeoldeuri heureunda” (The Stars Are Flowing; Paek Hyeon-U), 92, 93, 94–100, 105
Camp societies, 86, 135–38. See also State of emergency
Capitalism, 201, 203–4, 209–10
Carter, Jimmy, 21
Charisma, 76, 82, 83–84
Cheollima movement, 132
Children: indoctrination, 18; military games, 51–52, 53–54; Young Pioneers, 184. See also Fathers
China: Cultural Revolution, 154; Korean War and, 44, 105–6; Maoism, 199; Mao’s body, 34; Qing emperors, 14
Choe Eun-Hui, 32, 33, 129
Choe Hak-Su, Keun simjang (A Big Heart), 45–48, 81
Choe Sang-Sun, Uri hakkyo (Our School), 42–43, 81–82
Choe Yong-Gon, 16, 17
Chonghwa (self-review), 141–42
Chongryun (General Association of Korean Residents in Japan), xi, 28, 30–31
Christianity: ascetic movement, 141; confession, 142–43; differences from North Korean ideas, 195–96; Eastern Orthodox, 143; of Kim family, 14–15; Pietà, 194–95; Protestantism, 19
Church of England, 19
CNN, 138
Cold War, 7, 10–11, 83
Colonial period, 13–16, 142
Comfort women, 135–36
Concentration camps, 202
Confession, Christian, 142–43
Confucianism, 21, 24, 191, 192, 193–94
Crossing the Line, 108
Cultural relativism, 5
Culture and Personality School, 9–10
Dalai Lama, 34
Dear Leader, see Kim Jong Il
Death rituals, 21–22, 34–35, 191
Dehumanization of other, 5–8
Demick, Barbara, 18
Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, see North Korea
Dresnok, James Joseph, 108
Drucker, Peter, 197, 200, 201, 202, 203
Eastern Orthodox Christianity, 143
Economic plans, 45, 200
Egypt, mummification, 35
Elizabeth II, Queen, 19
Emotions: human, 48, 50, 54, 98, 99; politicization, 185. See also Love
Enemy: images, 133–34; in Korean War, 107; United States as, 51–52, 132, 133–34, 135, 137
Enemy studies, 6, 8, 10–11, 194
England, see United Kingdom
Eobeoi suryeongnim (Father/Mother Leader), 80–81
Eskimo life, 23, 190, 204
Espionage, 129–30. See also Ireumeomneun yeongungdeul
Index

Eternal President, Kim Il Sung
as, 22, 32, 33–34, 35–36, 137, 195, 207

Ethnographic fieldwork, 3, 8–10

Ethnology: data sources, 3, 4, 8–9, 10–11; dehumanization of subjects, 5–7; meaning, 3; study of North Korea, 1–2, 3–4, 208–9

Evans-Pritchard, E. E., 5–6

Expatriates, see Koreans in Japan

Families, see Fathers; Kinship

Fascism, 197, 201

Fatherland, 29, 33, 59, 75, 131

Fathers: Japanese emperor as, 191–92; Kim Il Sung seen as, 24, 80–81, 192–93, 194, 195; leaders addressed as, 24; love of, 60; missing, 79–80, 88–89, 101; relationships with sons, 144–54, 179–80, 181–83, 193; in traditional Korean kinship system, 192

Films: abductions of South Korean director and star, 32, 33, 129; Crossing the Line, 108; Kim Jong Il’s involvement, 32, 33, 129; in 1980s, 26, 27, 32, 33; performing songs from, 27. See also Ireumeom-neun yeongungdeul

Foucault, Michel, 140–41, 142

Free will, see Liberty

Friendships, 104, 130–31, 180–81

Functionalism, 5, 10

Gender: portrayals of Kim Il Sung as gender-free, 51, 80–81; of protagonists of novels, 80. See also Men; Women

Gender relations, 180–81. See also Love, romantic; Marriage

Generational differences, 179–80

Germany, Nazism, 197, 198, 201

Geumsusan Memorial Palace, 21, 191, 201

Godelier, Maurice, 204

Goodwill, 40–41

Gorer, Geoffrey, 10–11

Great Leader (suryeong), 2, 22, 187. See also Kim Il Sung

Guerrillas, anti-Japanese, 14, 15–17, 134

Guerrilla state, North Korea as, 16–17

Haeppicheun kkeudeopsi (Sunshine Forever; Kim Dong-Ho), 50, 51–55

Humanization of North Koreans, xiv, 8, 208–10

Humans: dehumanization of other, 5–8; emotions, 48, 50, 54, 98, 99; Kim Il Sung depicted as, 48, 50, 81–82, 207; North Koreans as, xiv, 8, 208–10

Hyeongmyeongjeontong (revolutionary tradition), 134

Hyeonjijido (“on-the-spot” guidance meetings), 45–48, 51, 52–55, 72–74
Index

Ideological education, 25, 27, 134, 144, 205

Ideology: hyeongmyeongjeontong (revolutionary tradition), 134; Marxism-Leninism, 199; news media as vehicles, 205; origins of North Korean, 13–14. See also Juche

Immortality, see Eternal President

Imperialism, U.S. (mije), 7–8, 133–34

Inca society, 204

Inminui hannaemaem (One Heart of the People), 50

International Committee of the Red Cross, 28

Ironworkers, see Yonghaegongdeul

Italian fascism, 197, 201

Japan: abductions by North Korea, 32–33, 108, 129–30; colonial rule of Korea, 13–16, 142; comfort stations for military, 135–36; death rituals, 34–35; emperors, 14, 136, 191–92, 194, 195, 196; enemy studies, 6, 8, 10–11, 194; Meiji Restoration, 191–92, 197; military, 194; as nation, 196. See also Koreans in Japan

Jenkins, Charles Robert, 108

Jeong Chang-Yun, Meonkil (The Long Road), 61, 62–80, 81, 82, 84, 131

Journalism, 205–6

Juche (“self-reliance”): differences from Marxism, 199–200; elements of, 25, 186; Kim Jong Il’s writings on, 32; slogans, 132; study of, 25, 27

Jungpyeon soseol (medium-length novels), 144

Kang Ban-Seok, 14, 15

Keun simjang (A Big Heart; Choe Hak-Su), 45–48, 81

Kidnappings, see Abductions

Kim Chaek, 16

Kim Dong-Ho, Haeppicheun kkeudeopsi (Sunshine Forever), 50, 51–55

Kim Hyeong-Jik, 14–15

Kim Il Sung: as anti-Japanese guerrilla, 14, 15–17; birth, 14; death, 20, 21, 137, 194–95, 207; display of body and relics, 21–22, 34, 35–36, 191; early life and education, 15, 31; as Eternal President, 22, 32, 33–34, 35–36, 137, 195, 207; family, 14–15; Korean nation and, 196; portraits, 19; sanitization, 107; as sovereign, 17–21, 188, 193–94, 197; in Soviet Union, 16; speeches and writings, 25, 26, 185;
Index

Kim Jong Il: artistic proclivity, 26, 32, 33; birth, 16, 31, 201; descriptions of, 33; differences from father, 31–32, 36; early life and education, 31–32; Eternal Presidency of father and, 33–34, 36, 137, 195; film productions, 32, 33, 129; future replacement, 36; as heir, 32; meeting with Koizumi, 129–30; as military leader, 132–33; political emergence, 32; positionality, 33–34, 36; succession of father, 2, 36, 137; titles, 2, 24, 36, 195

Kim Jong Suk, 16

Kim Jong Un, 36

Kim Sam-Bok: Mirubeol jeonseol(The Legend of Miru Plain), 50, 55–60, 87, 90, 91, 107; Seongjangu bom(A Spring of Growth), 144, 154–69, 174–78, 180, 181, 183

Kinship: Confucian system, 193–94; in Japan, 191–92; Korean system, 192; lineages (bongwan), 192; patriarchies, 193–94

Ko Byeong-Sam: Malgeunachim(Pure Morning), 44–45; “Pyongyangangeun norae-handa”(Pyongyang Is Singing), 48–49, 81, 91–92, 107; stories, 49–50

Ko Yeong-Hui, 36

Koizumi Jun’ichirō, 129–30
Korea: colonial period, 13–16, 142; dehumanization, 7; kinship relations, 24; partition, 27, 28, 74, 133, 196, 197–98; royal family, 14, 24, 193. See also North Korea; South Korea

Korean Air Lines bombing, 33

Korean Revolutionary People’s Army, 14

Koreans in Japan: legal status, 28, 29; organizations, xi, 28, 30–31; relationship with North Korea, xi-xiii, xiv, 27, 28–31; repatriations, xii-xiii, xiv, 27–30, 36; schools, xiii, xiv, 28; supporters of South Korea, 28; visits to North Korea, 29–30, 134–35

Korean War: American occupation of north, 92, 104, 105–6, 133; contacts between Northerners and Southerners, 106, 107; cultural construction of, 132; effects in North Korea, 198; fiction set in, 42–45, 49, 55–57, 87–92, 93–105, 107; fiction written during, 86–87, 94, 100–105; Incheon landing, 44, 92–93; liberation of Seoul, 95; media coverage, 6; as ongoing war, 86, 106, 132–33, 135, 137–39; personal relationships during, 106; prisoners of war, 121; reconstruction period, 45–47, 51, 132; truce, 44, 86; U.S. and Chinese involvement, 44, 105–6, 133; Wolmi Island battle, 92–93. See also War stories

“Kudaewongwa sindaewon” (An Old Soldier and A Young Soldier; Yun Se-Jung), 93–94, 100–105

Kwon, Heonik, 22, 194

Language: of self, 144–45, 181; of self-criticism sessions, 184–85, 206

Leaders: charismatic, 76, 82, 83–84; embalmed bodies on display, 34–36; totalitarian, 82, 83–84. See also Kim Il Sung

Lebacqz, Karen, 9

Levinas, Emmanuel, 199

Lewis, C. S., 104

Li Jin-U, 108. See also Ireumeom-neun yeongungdeul

Li Jong-Ryeol, Bultaneun bam (Burning Night), 87–91, 105

Liberal democracy, 85, 203, 210

Liberty, 40–41, 82, 83–84

Lindholm, Charles, 84

Lineages (bongwan), 192

Literature: changes in 1990s and later, 48; collective production, 12, 144; commissioned, 94; educative purpose, 12, 13; extra-textual information, 13; key texts, 12; in 1950s and 1960s, 26, 86–87; novels, 26, 144; readers, 13, 144; social role, 205, 206–7; as source, 4, 11–13; state production, 12–13, 144; technical details, 185–86; writers, 12–13
Living standards, urban-rural differences, 170–71, 178
Love: fatherly, 60; in fictional images of Leader, 43–44, 45, 48, 49–50, 54, 60, 76–77, 81, 83; of God, 41, 61, 77, 83; in Leader’s relationship to people, 18, 26, 41–42, 48, 50, 54, 61–62, 77, 200; location in North Korea, 61–62; physical manifestations, 76–77; politicization, 185, 205; social role, 60–61; sovereign, 61–62, 77; triangles, 61, 77, 80, 84; Weil on, 41–42, 60–61, 77, 82–83, 84
Love, romantic: charisma and, 84; in fiction, 69, 70–72, 76, 98, 100, 147–51, 169–80; in Ireumeomneun yeongungdeul, 110, 111–12, 130–31; political life and, 204–5; secondary to Leader relationship, 77–78, 80. See also Marriage
Love stories: mundane, 169–70, 177–79; as secondary stories, 169–70, 180–81
Loyalty: fake, 78; to Great Leader, 35, 80, 186, 187, 188, 196; in totalitarian regimes, 198; of veterans, 134

Malgeun achim (Pure Morning; Ko Byeong-Sam), 44–45
Malinowski, Bronislaw, 5
Manchukuo, 14
Manchuria, 13–14, 15, 16–17, 134
Mao Zedong, 34, 199
Marriage: arranged, 170–71, 176, 205; between members of same lineage, 192; in North Korea, 204–5. See also Love, romantic
Marxism-Leninism, 199
Mass entertainment, 22, 23, 26, 27, 135, 138–39. See also Films
Mauss, Marcel, 23, 190, 204
Mead, Margaret, 9–10, 11
Media, see Films; News media; Television
Men: male bonds, 100–105; relationships with Leader, 77–78. See also Fathers; Gender
Meon kil (The Long Road; Jeong Chang-Yun), 61, 62–80, 81, 82, 84, 131
Mije (U.S. imperialism), 7–8, 133–34
Military: American, 128–29; Japanese, 194
Military, North Korean, see North Korean People’s Army
Military games, 51–52, 53–54
Mirubeol jeonseol (The Legend of Miru Plain; Kim Sam-Bok), 50, 55–60, 87, 90, 91, 107
Mourning, see Death rituals
Movies, see Films
Mummification, 35
Munye chulpansa, 144

Nationalism, 197–98
National security, 132–33, 136. See also State of emergency
National Security Agency, U.S., 203
Nazism, 197, 198, 201
Neo-Confucian state, North Korea as, 21, 24, 191
Neoliberal states, 202–3
News media, 6, 205–6
Nineteen Eighty-Four (Orwell), 50
NKPA, see North Korean People’s Army
North Korea: ethnological study of, 1–2, 3–4, 208–9; founding of state, 16, 197–98, 199; as guerrilla state, 16–17; historiography, 14, 15; ideological origins, 13–14, 199; imports from Japan, 30, 134, 206; as nation, 196; nuclear weapons program, 133, 135; outsiders’ views of, xiii-xiv, 7, 8, 207–8, 209, 210; previous works on, 2–3; propaganda, 7–8; reunification goal, 196, 197, 199
North Korean People’s Army (NKPA): fictional soldiers, 45, 88–89, 94–105; liberation of Seoul, 95; retreat, 44, 92, 105; Supreme Commander, 2; Wolmi Island battle, 92–93. See also Korean War
North Koreans: compulsory Friday labor, 30; defectors, 18; humanization, xiv, 8, 208–10
Nuclear weapons program, 133, 135
Nuer people, 5–6
Obedience, 41, 82, 83

Orwell, George, Nineteen Eighty-Four, 50

Pacific War, see World War II
Paek Hyeon-U, “Byeoldeuri heureunda” (The Stars Are Flowing), 92, 93, 94–100, 105
Patriarchies, 193–94
Performances, see Mass entertainment; Rituals
Perpetual ritual state, 21–24
Pietà, 194–95
Pilgrimage tours, 172–73, 201
Political life: dominance in North Korea, 4, 140, 186–88, 190–91, 204; role of literature, 206–7; self and, 140, 181, 184, 185–87
Propaganda, 3, 9, 13, 133, 134, 205–6
Protestantism, 19. See also Christianity
Puyi, 14
Pyongyang: fall of, 44; Geum-susan Memorial Palace, 21, 191, 201; Kim Il Sung statue, 191; living standards, 170–71; underground theater, 44, 49
“Pyongyangangeun noraeihanda” (Pyongyang Is Singing; Ko Byeong-Sam), 48–49, 81, 91–92, 107
Red Cross, 28
Refugees, 208–9
Republic of Korea, see South Korea
Respect, 9, 20
Revolutionary pilgrimage tours, 172–73, 201
Rhee, Syngman, 111, 112
Rituals: death, 34–35, 191; in Eskimo life, 23, 190; Inca, 204; perpetual ritual state, 21–24
Romantic love, see Love, romantic
Rome, ancient, 193
Ryeongdoja, 2

Sado, Prince, 193
Sarang (love), 98, 130–31
Self: language of, 144–45, 181; political aspects, 140, 181, 184, 185–87; public existence, 141, 144, 181, 184–85; purification, correction, and transformation, 141, 181; relationship to Great Leader, 187–89, 197; role in North Korean society, 140–41, 186, 188–89; sacrifice of, 140, 188
Self-criticism sessions: language, 184–85, 206; mandatory, 184; in novels, 159–60, 169, 206; relationship with Great Leader, 142–43, 184–85
Self-cultivation, 183–84, 185
Self-examination, 141, 152, 161–62, 182–84
Self-review (chonghwata), 141–42
Seongjangui bom (A Spring of Growth; Kim Sam-Bok), 144, 154–69, 174–78, 180, 181, 183
Seungrijadeul (TheVictors), 91–92
Sexual slavery, 135–36
Sin Sang-ok, 32, 33, 129
Socialist Youth League, 184
Social relations: complexity, 180–81; dominated by political, 204, 205; Great Leader and, 18–19, 24; hierarchical, 67. See also Friendships; Kinship; Love
Souls, 40
South Korea: abductions by North Korea, 32, 33, 129; refugees from North Korea, 208–9; terrorist attacks on, 33. See also Korean War
South Manchurian Railway Company, 14
Sovereign love, 61–62, 77
Sovereigns: Japanese emperor as, 194; Kim Il Sung as, 17–21, 188, 193–94, 197
Soviet Union: influences in North Korea, 45, 142, 199, 200; Lenin’s body, 34; Marxism–Leninism, 199
Spies, see Espionage
State of emergency: continuous, 85–86, 106, 132–33, 135, 136, 137–39; effects on individual lives, 85–86; in United States, 85, 136–37. See also Camp societies
Suh, Dae-Sook, 16
Suryeong (Great Leader), 2, 22, 187. See also Kim Il Sung
Television, 206
Terrorism, 33, 202–3
Index

Three Revolutions program, 154–55, 156, 160–61. See also Seongjangui bom
Tibetan Buddhism, 34
Totalitarianism: differences from North Korean regime, 198, 199; German and Italian, 197, 198, 201; leaders, 82, 83–84; non-economic rewards, 201–2; in North Korea, 199, 200, 202, 208
Transgression, 39
Trobriand Islanders, 5

United Kingdom: British Social Anthropology, 5, 10; MI5 agents, 115, 117, 126; monarchy, 19, 34, 35, 48, 80
United Nations, 6
United States: as enemy, 51–52, 132, 133–34, 135, 137; imperialism, 7–8, 133–34, 137; North Korean relations with, 133; Office of War Information, 11; state of emergency, 85, 136–37; war on terror, 136–37, 202–3. See also Korean War

Unsung Heroes, see Ireumeomneun yeongundeul

Uri hakkyo (Our School; Choe Sang-Sun), 42–43, 81–82

Visual media, 26, 32, 206. See also Films

Wada Haruki, 16–17, 20

War, see Korean War; State of emergency; World War II
War on terror, 136–37, 202–3

Weil, Simone, 40–42, 60–61, 77, 82–83, 84
Women: comfort women, 135–36; in U.S. military, 128–29. See also Gender

Workers’ Party of Korea, 16–17, 25, 32, 184

World War II: anti-Japanese guerrillas, 14, 15–17, 134; comfort women, 135–36; enemy studies by anthropologists, 6, 8, 11, 194; Japanese atrocities, 194; Korean expatriates in Japan, 27

Yeongjo, King, 193

Yonggwangroneun sumswinda (The Steel Furnace Is Breathing; Yun Se-Jung), 61, 93–94, 103, 104

Young Pioneers, 184

Yun Se-Jung: “Kudaewongwa sindaewon” (An Old Soldier and A Young Soldier), 93–94, 100–105; Yonggwangroneun sumswinda (The Steel Furnace Is Breathing), 61, 93–94, 103, 104

Žižek, Slavoj, 199, 200, 203